Chapter – 5

INDIGO

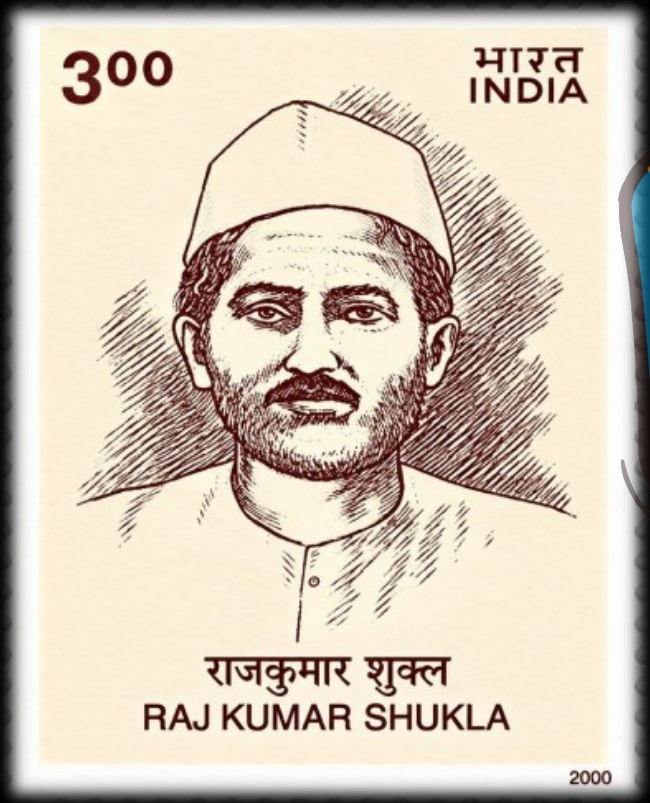

Arpita Sharma

INDIGO

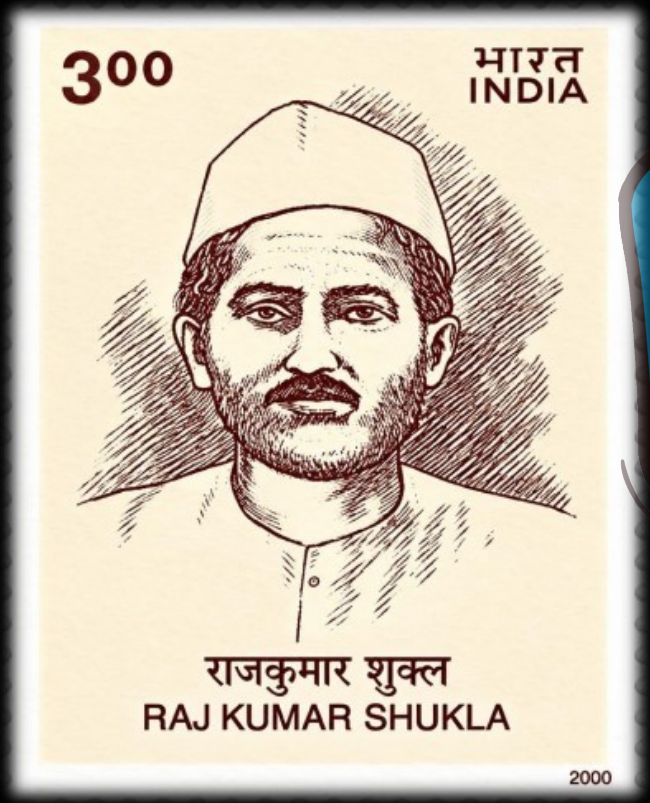

1. Louis Fischer's excerpt from The Life of Mahatma Gandhi narrates Gandhi's role involvement in the Champaran episode of 1917 a pivotal (मूलभूत) moment in his leadership journey.

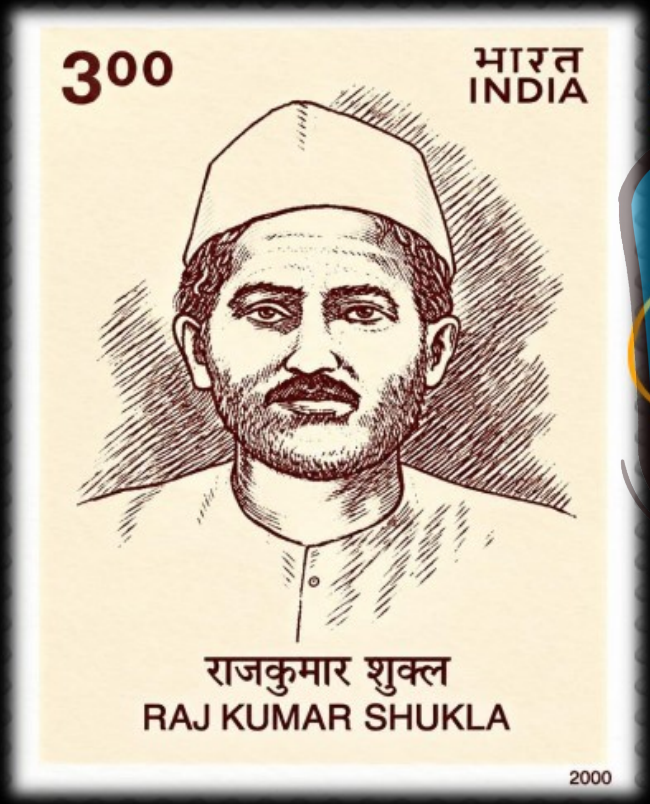

2. Gandhi met Rajkumar Shukla, a resolute and illiterate sharecropper, at the Indian National Congress session in Lucknow.

INDIGO

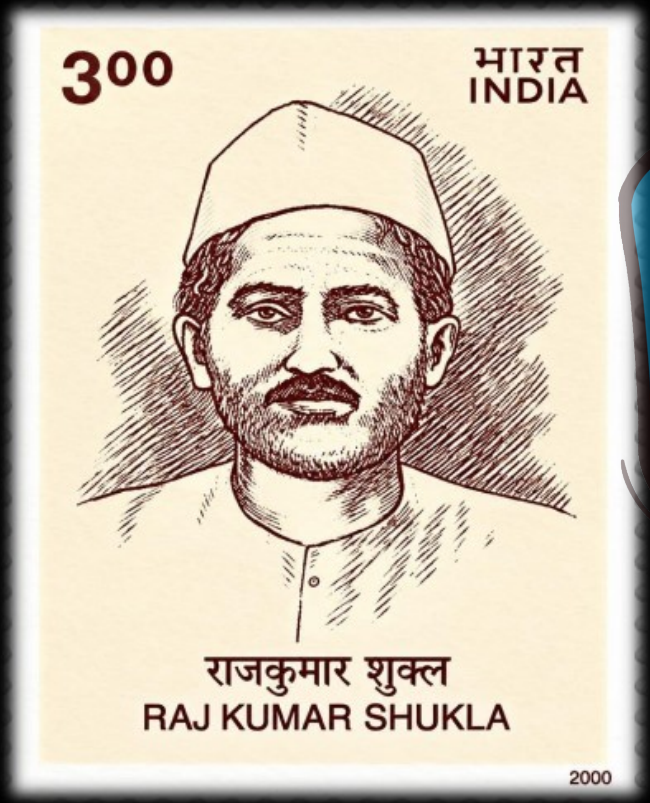

3. Shukla persistently (लगातार) followed Gandhi, urging him to visit Champaran to witness the plight (दुख दयनीय स्थिति) of indigo sharecroppers.

INDIGO

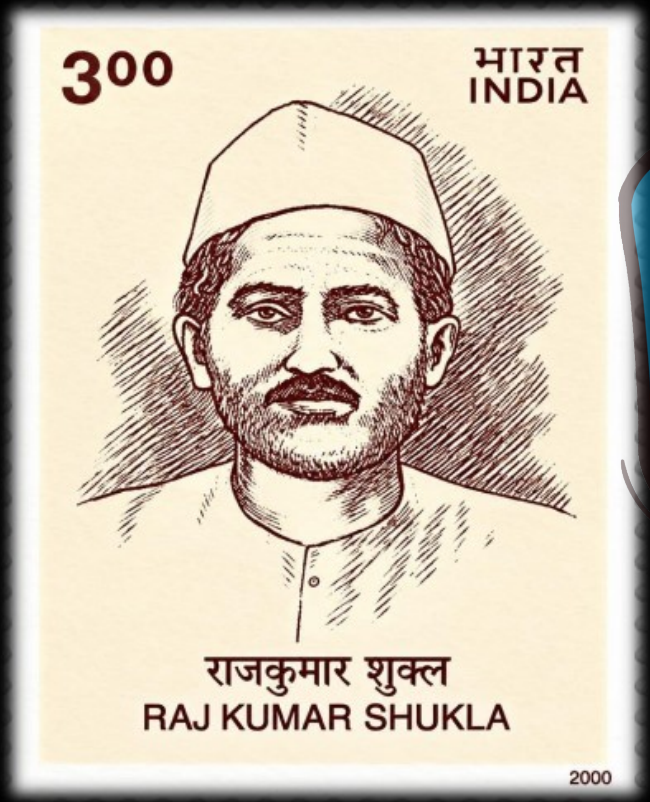

4. Sharecroppers in Champaran were compelled by British landlords to plant 15% of their land with indigo and surrender the harvest as rent.

INDIGO

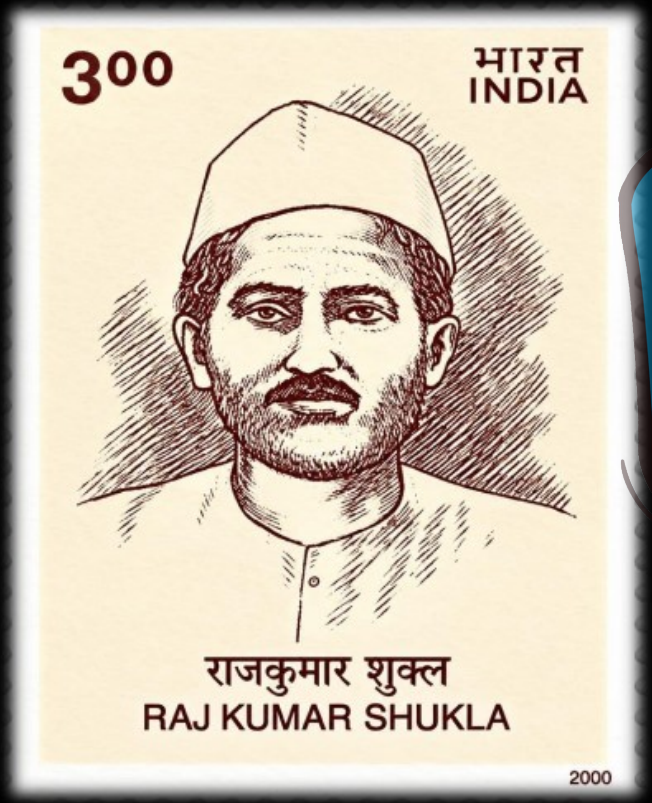

5. With the advent (आगमन) of synthetic (कृत्रिम) indigo, landlords forced sharecroppers to pay compensation (क्षतिपूर्ति) for releasing them from the agreement.

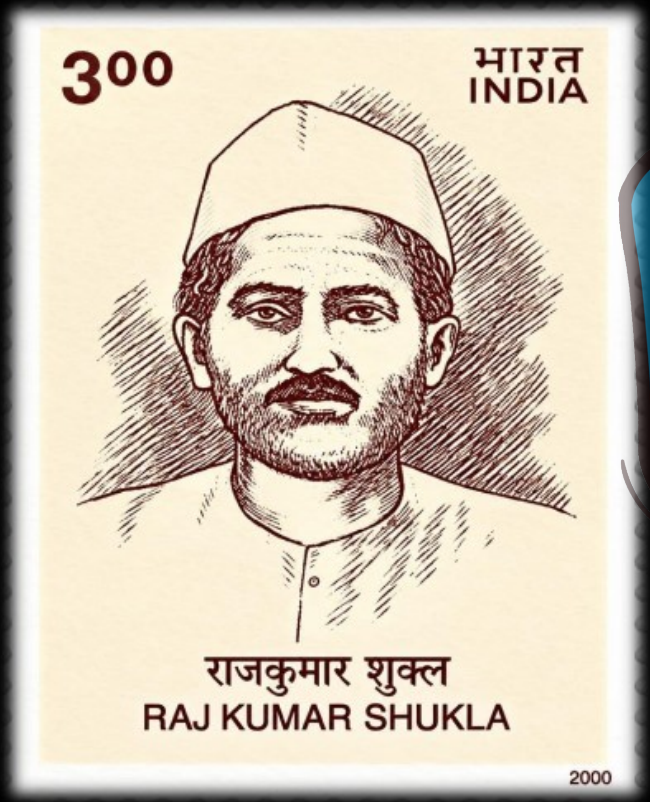

6. Illiterate peasants initially complied (मानना) but later demanded refunds, sparking disputes.

mg मतभेद

7. Gandhi traveled to Patna with Shukla and stayed at Rajendra Prasad's house, though servants mistook him for an ordinary peasant.

8. He proceeded to Muzaffarpur to gather detailed information, staying with Professor J.B. Kripalani and meeting local lawyers.

INDIGO

9. Gandhi criticized lawyers for charging exorbitant (अत्यधिक मंहगा) fees, emphasizing that peasants needed freedom from fear, not legal battles.

INDIGO

10. In Champaran, Gandhi began investigating the grievances of दुख तकलीफ़ sharecroppers, challenging the British authority's refusal to provide information.

5 roadmap

INDIGO

11. British officials attempted to intimidate (धमकाना) Gandhi, issuing orders for him to leave Champaran.

INDIGO

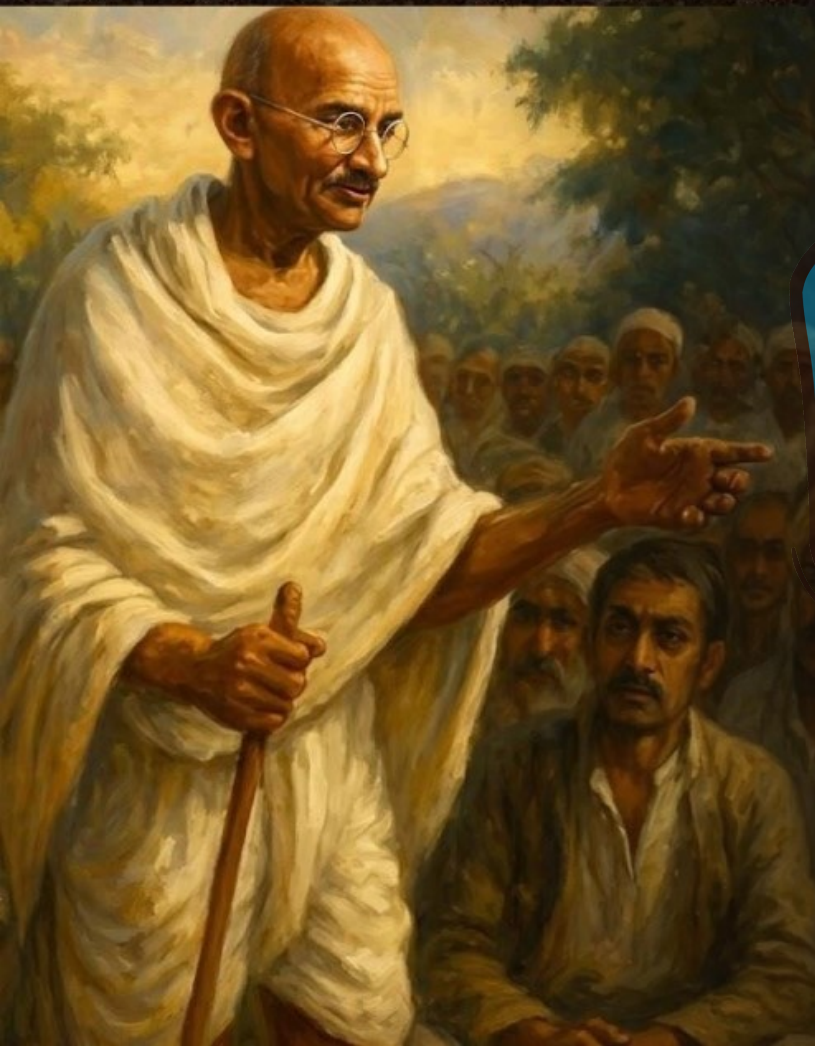

12. Gandhi refused to comply, prompting a court case that mobilized thousands of peasants to support him.

13. Gandhi demonstrated non-violent resistance, cooperating with officials to manage the crowd while firmly standing his ground.

INDIGO

14. Influential figures like Rajendra Prasad and other lawyers decided to support Gandhi, committing to his cause.

INDIGO

15. The British government, unable to suppress the movement, dropped the case against Gandhi, marking a victory for civil disobedience.

INDIGO

16. Gandhi organized a comprehensive inquiry into the sharecroppers' grievances, documenting testimonies (गवाही/साक्ष्य) from thousands of peasants.

INDIGO

17. Landlords, facing overwhelming evidence, agreed to refund a portion of the extorted money.

सबूत

INDIGO

18. Gandhi accepted a 25% refund, prioritizing the symbolic significance of landlords surrendering their authority.

25% refund

19. The settlement empowered peasants, fostering courage and awareness of their rights.

अधिकार

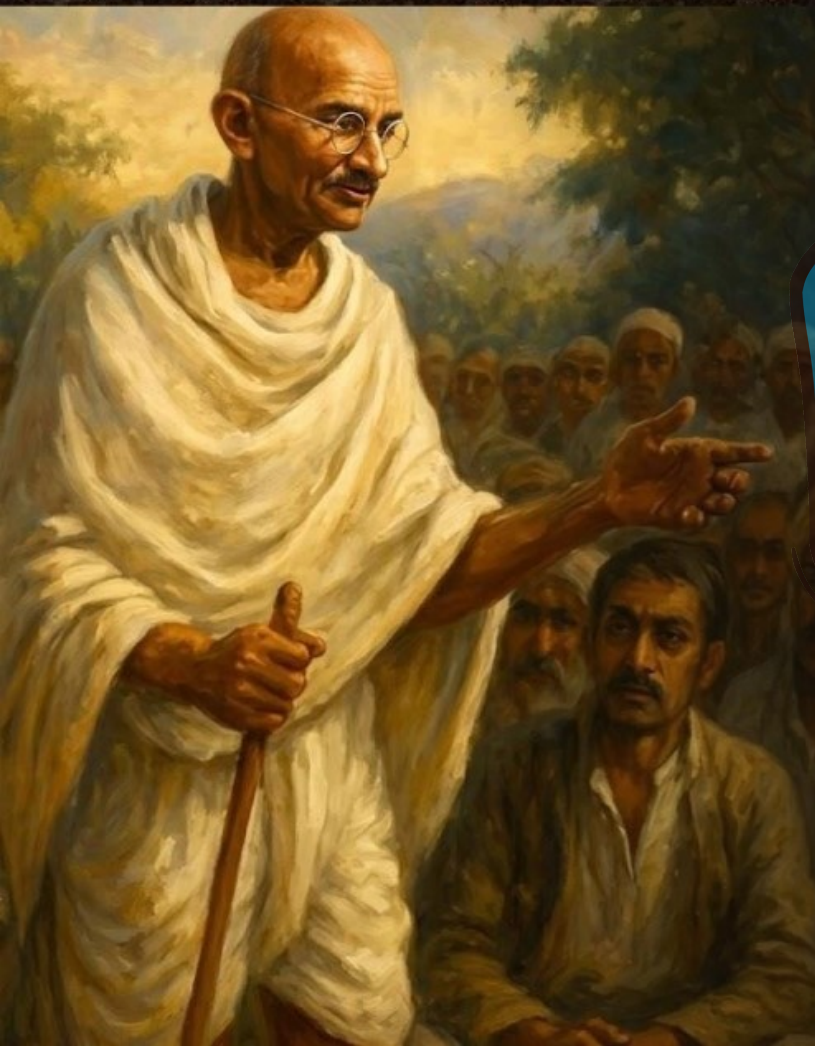

INDIGO

20. British planters eventually abandoned their estates, leading to the end of indigo sharecropping in Champaran.

21. Gandhi's involvement extended beyond political solutions to addressing social and cultural issues.

22. Schools were established in villages, with teachers like Mahadev Desai and Narhari Parikh promoting education and sanitation.

23. Kasturba Gandhi worked to improve hygiene and address the basic needs of women in Champaran.

SKIP

24. Gandhi ensured his ashram functioned smoothly during his prolonged absence, demonstrating his organizational skills.

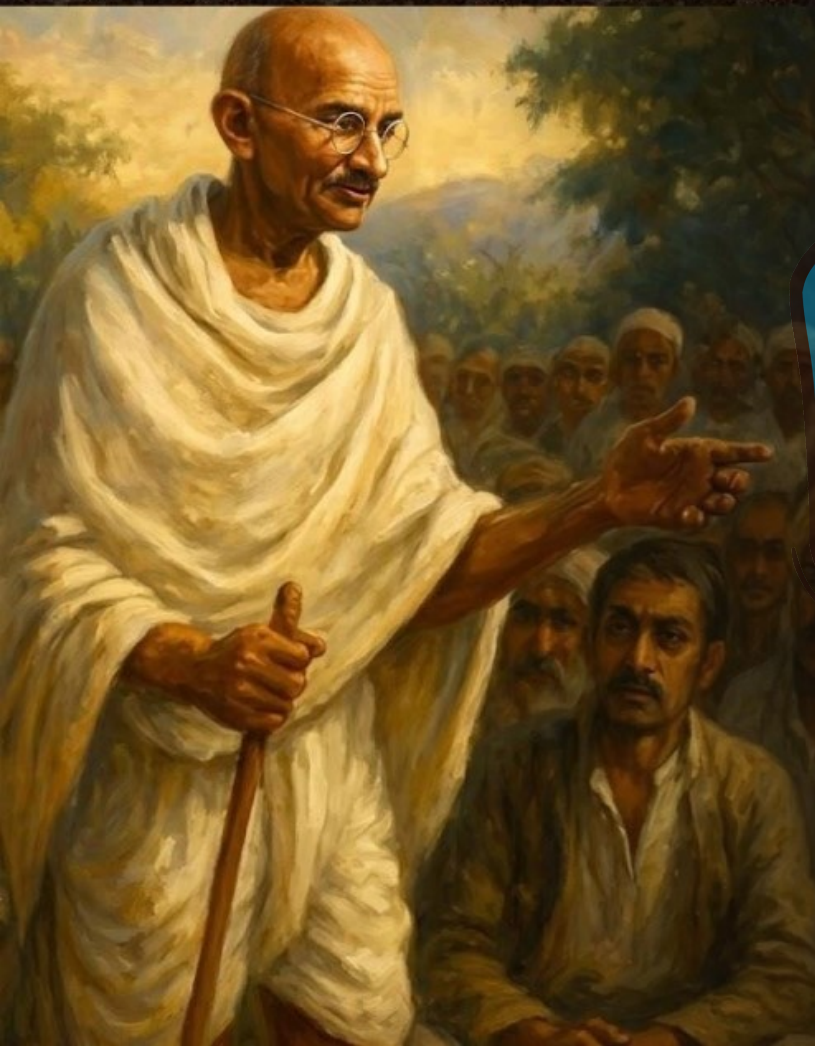

INDIGO

25. The Champaran episode reflected Gandhi's integration of humanitarian (मानवतावादी) concerns with political activism.

26. Gandhi declined support from Englishman C.F. Andrews, urging his followers to rely on their own strength.

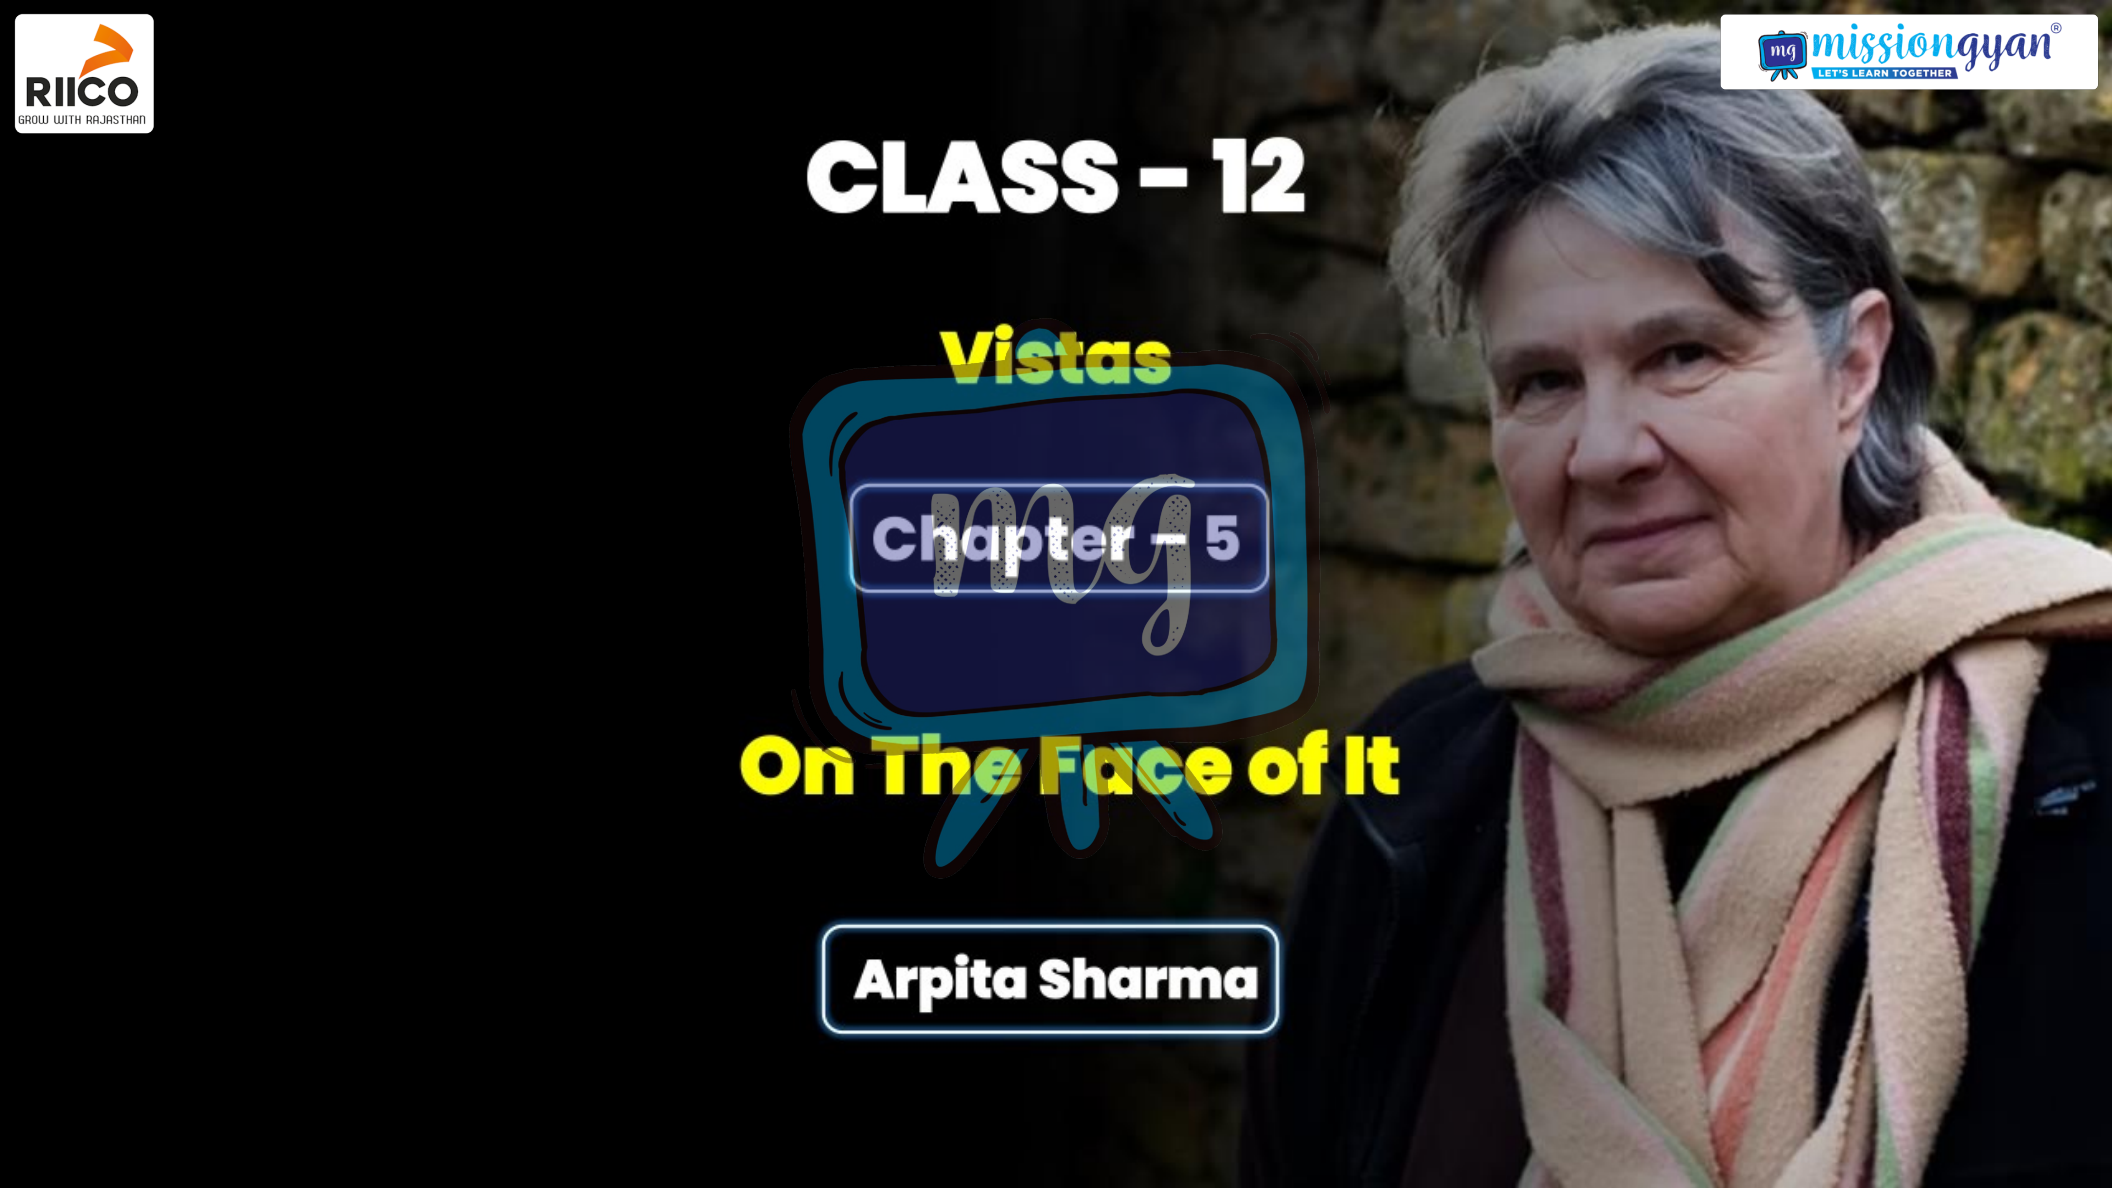

27. The incident highlighted Gandhi's philosophy of self-reliance, non-violence, and justice through practical engagement.

INDIGO

28. The narrative underscores the contributions of ordinary Indians to the freedom movement and Gandhi's unique approach to leadership.

Chapter – 5
On The Face of It
Arpita Sharma

ON THE FACE OF IT

1. Mr. Lamb, an elderly man with a tin leg, is sitting in his garden, enjoying nature, when he notices a boy, Derry, cautiously entering the space.

ON THE FACE OF IT

2. Derry explains his reluctance (अनिच्छा या हिचक) to interact with people due to a severe facial scar (निशान) caused by acid, which makes others uncomfortable or pity (दया) him.

ON THE FACE OF IT

3. Mr. Lamb reassures Derry that he is welcome in the garden and encourages him to see life differently, highlighting the beauty of everyday things like crab apples, weeds, and bees.

ON THE FACE OF IT

4. Derry expresses frustration over how people judge him based on his appearance, sharing how he feels alienated (दूर) and hurt by society's perceptions.

ON THE FACE OF IT

5. Mr. Lamb, drawing from his own experiences with his disability, tells Derry that it is possible to overcome these challenges by focusing on what one has rather than what is lost or damaged.

7. Mr. Lamb shares his open-minded perspective on life, explaining his fondness for connecting with people and his acceptance of both joys and hardships.

ON THE FACE OF IT

8. Derry begins to feel inspired by Mr. Lamb's wisdom and starts opening up about his feelings and desires, including his wish to find meaning and purpose beyond societal judgments.

ON THE FACE OF IT

9. Mr. Lamb invites Derry to help him collect crab apples and make jelly, creating a symbolic gesture of inclusion and normalcy.

ON THE FACE OF IT

10. Derry, while hesitant, feels drawn to Mr. Lamb's positive outlook and unique way of looking at life and nature.

ON THE FACE OF IT

11. Returning home, Derry faces resistance from his mother, who forbids him from going back to the garden due to her assumptions (पूर्व धारणा) about Mr. Lamb.

12. Defying his mother's restrictions, Derry runs back to the garden, feeling a sense of urgency to reconnect with Mr. Lamb and continue their newfound bond.

ON THE FACE OF IT

13. Upon reaching the garden, Derry discovers that Mr. Lamb has fallen from a ladder while picking apples and is likely dead.

ON THE FACE OF IT

14. Overcome with grief (दुख) Derry kneels beside Mr. Lamb, lamenting (विलाप) his loss and the missed opportunity for further interaction, but he resolves to hold on to the lessons he learned.
