I will arise and go now, and go to Innisfree, a

And a small cabin build there, of clay and wattles made: b

Nine bean-rows will I have there, a hive for the honeybee, a

And live alone in the bee-loud glade. b

And I shall have some peace there, for peace comes dropping slow

Dropping from the veils of the morning to where the cricket sings;

There midnight's all a glimmer, and noon a purple glow,

And evenings full of the linnet's wings.

I will arise and go now, for always night and day
I hear the lake water lapping with low sounds by the shore;
While I stand on the roadway, or on the pavements grey,
I hear it in the deep heart's core.
