Lesson - 2

The Monkey and the Crocodile

Part - 4

Rima Bharali

10. Read the sentences about actions that happened in the past:

- The monkey gave the crocodile some rose apples.
- The crocodile took some rose apples to his wife.

Now, write down two things that you did yesterday.
You can take help from the word cards given below:

- i) I...talked to a friend.....
ii) I...played football.....

talked to a friend

helped mother in cooking

played football

listened to music

swam in the lake

went for a walk

11. Let's read the following sentences:

i) He eats rose apples every day

ii) I like to eat rose apples.

iii) We love to eat rose apples.

iv) She likes to eat rose apples.

Read the sentences carefully. Notice the underlined words. Some words end in 's' while some do not have 's' at the end. Think about when we use 'I', 'he', 'she', 'we', or 'they' with these words. Now, write the words that are used before the underlined words.

i) He

ii) I

iii) We

iv) she

12. Read the words aloud:

the these
they them

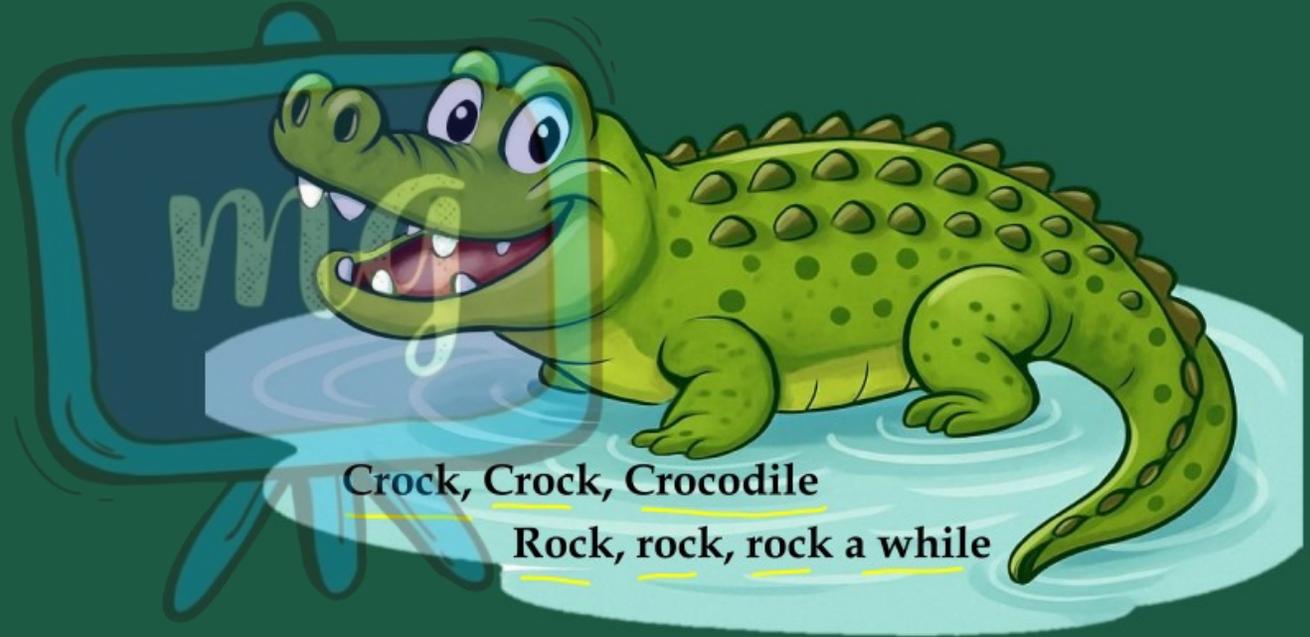

thank think
thumb throw

13. Read the story again. Find words beginning with 'th' and write them down :

there
the thank these
them

thinks
thought
then

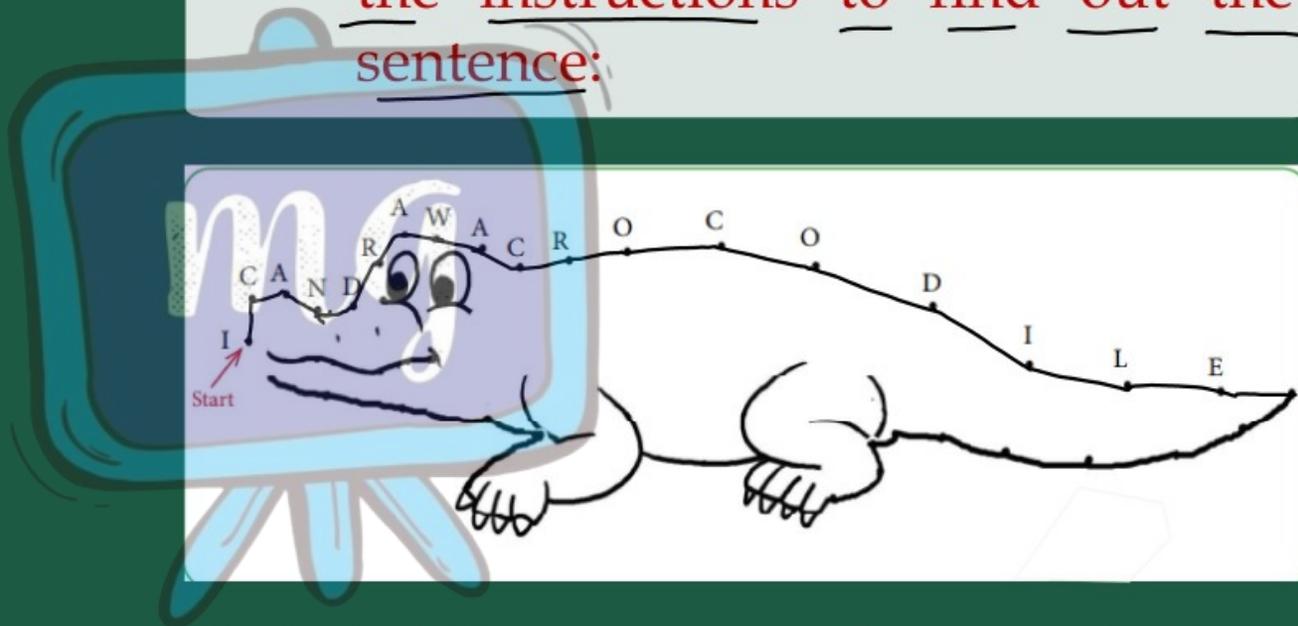

14. Say as fast as you can:

Crock, Crock, Crocodile

Rock, rock, rock a while

15. Listen to your teacher and follow the instructions to find out the sentence:

Read aloud the sentence and then write it down:

I CAN DRAW A CROCODILE.

16. Look at the pictures and say the names of the birds.
