

CLASS - 3

ENGLISH
(BLOSSOM-I)

Lesson - 3

Kanaklata Baruah-
A Brave Young Woman

Part - 3

RIMA BHARALI

4.a) Listen to these words and say
them aloud.

blue

glue

clue

true

rule

June

tune

tube

4.b) Read the following pairs of words aloud :

lead - led

keep - kept

become - became

give - gave

take - took

run - ran

4.c) Now, make sentences using any two pairs of words. One is done for you.

run : I run in the playground every morning.

ran : Yesterday, Rohan ran quickly to catch the bus.

4.c) Now, make sentences using any two pairs of words. One is done for you.

run : I run in the playground every morning.

ran : Yesterday, Rohan ran quickly to catch the bus.

lead: She leads the team.

Led: They led the discussion.

Keep: Please keep the door closed.

Kept: She kept her hair behind her ears.

Become: We have become good friends.

Became: He became very famous after the movie.

Take: Take a picture.

Took: She took several apples.

5. We found the words lived' and 'loved' in the lesson. Now, read the lesson again and find words that have "-ed" at the end. Write down the words in your notebook.

5. We found the words 'lived' and 'loved' in the lesson. Now, read the lesson again and find words that have "-ed" at the end. Write down the words in your notebook.

Ans:- lived, named, loved, wanted, joined,
warned, tried, started, remembered.

6.a) Say each sentence after joining
the two parts under column 'A'
and column 'B' with the word
'because'.

e.g. : Kanaklata Barua was a brave young woman because she scarified her life for her motherland.

Column A

- I. Kanaklata Barua was a brave young woman
- II. Assam was her motherland
- III. She wanted to free her motherland from British rule

because

Column B

- I. she sacrificed her life for the motherland.
- II. she was born in Assam.
- III. she loved her motherland.

6.) Now, write down the sentences
using 'because':

i.
ii.
iii.

6.) Now, write down the sentences using 'because':

- i. Kanaklata Barua was a brave young woman because she sacrificed her life for the motherland.
- ii. Assam was her motherland because she was born in Assam.
- iii. She wanted to free her mother land from British rule because she loved her motherland.

