Let's read the story:

Once upon a time, in a green forest, there lived a hare. He was friend to a tortoise.

One sunny day, the hare challenged his friend tortoise to a race. The hare was swift. He thought he can win the race easily. The tortoise accepted the challenge.

The hare had invited all the animals to the race. When the race began, the hare ran as fast as he could. After some time, he looked back and couldn't see the tortoise. So, he took a nap under a shady tree. While the hare was sleeping, the tortoise moved steadily until he reached the finish line.

Hours later, the hare woke up and started looking for his friend. He rushed to the finish line and saw the tortoise waiting, with a big smile.
