

Chapter – 8 | Meadow Surprises

QUIZ-01

1. What is a meadow?

- A. A forest area
- B. A grassy field
- C. A desert land
- D. A mountain top (B)

Explanation : A meadow is an open grassy field, often full of plants and insects.

2. What should one do to see the surprises in a meadow?

- A. Run fast
- B. Shout loudly
- C. Observe quietly
- D. Dig the ground (C)

Explanation : The poem suggests careful and quiet observation to notice the surprises.

3. Which creatures can be seen in the meadow?

- A. Lions and tigers
- B. Birds and insects
- C. Fish and frogs
- D. Snakes and lizards (B)

Explanation : The poet mentions birds, butterflies, and insects in the meadow.

4. Where do butterflies hide in the meadow?

- A. In the sky
- B. Under stones
- C. Among the flowers
- D. In water (C)

Explanation : Butterflies are found hiding among flowers.

5. What do the grass blades appear like in the poem?

- A. Books
- B. Trees
- C. Green flags
- D. Mirrors (C)

Explanation : Grass blades are compared to green flags.

6. What time of day is best to see meadow surprises?

- A. Noon
- B. Night
- C. Early morning
- D. Evening (C)

Explanation : Early morning is the best time to observe meadow life.

7. What do ants do in the meadow?

- A. Sleep
- B. Build houses
- C. March in a line
- D. Fly (C)

Explanation : The poem describes ants moving in a line.

8. What does the poet encourage children to do?

- A. Pluck flowers
- B. Catch insects
- C. Observe nature closely
- D. Leave the meadow (C)

Explanation : The poet encourages close observation of nature.

9. What literary device is used when grass is compared to flags?

- A. Metaphor
- B. Simile
- C. Personification
- D. Alliteration (A)

Explanation : Grass blades are directly compared to flags, which is a metaphor.

10. What is the central idea of the poem?

- A. Meadows are dangerous
- B. Nature hides many small wonders
- C. Animals should be studied
- D. Fields are empty places (B)

Explanation : The poem highlights the hidden beauty and surprises in nature.