

CHAPTER-5 | The Ball Poem

QUIZ
PART-03

1. Why does the poet say, "I would not intrude on him"?
- He is angry with the boy
 - He wants the boy to learn to accept loss
 - He does not see the boy
 - He wants to leave quickly (B)

Explanation: The poet does not interfere because he wants the boy to face the truth of loss and learn an important lesson of life.

2. Why does the poet not offer money for another ball?
- He has no money
 - The shop is closed
 - A new ball cannot bring back old memories
 - The boy does not like balls (C)

Explanation: The lost ball carries emotional value and memories, so money cannot truly replace it.

3. What does "All his young days" suggest?
- The boy is very old
 - The ball was linked with childhood memories
 - The boy had many balls
 - The harbour was very large (B)

Explanation: This phrase shows that the ball was connected with many happy memories from the boy's childhood.

4. What does "the world of possessions" mean?
- A world of games only
 - A world full of material things
 - A world of animals
 - A world of books (B)

Explanation: The PDF explains that it means a world filled with materialistic things that give comfort and luxury.

5. Has the boy lost anything earlier in his life?
- Yes, many things
 - No, this seems to be his first real loss
 - Only money
 - Only toys (B)

Explanation: The line "Now he senses first responsibility" suggests that this is the boy's first serious experience of loss.

6. What is the boy learning from the loss of the ball?
- How to earn money
 - How to buy better toys
 - How to move on after a loss
 - How to swim in the harbor (C)

Explanation: The poem teaches that people must accept loss and continue living with strength and understanding.

7. Where did the boy lose his ball?
- In the playground
 - In the market
 - Into the harbour water
 - Inside the house (C)

Explanation: The ball bounced down the street and went into the water near the harbour.

8. What was the effect of the loss on the boy's mind?
- He felt happy
 - He felt emotional shock
 - He became careless
 - He started laughing (B)

Explanation: The PDF says the boy suffered an emotional shock after losing the ball.

9. What does "Money is external" mean?
- Money grows outside
 - Money is more important than feelings
 - Money cannot replace true emotional loss
 - Money belongs to others (C)

Explanation: Money can buy things, but it cannot restore the exact object or the feelings and memories attached to it.

10. What is the central point of the poem?
- The cost of a ball
 - The boy's game
 - Understanding loss and bearing it
 - Buying new possessions (C)

Explanation: The main idea is not just the loss of the ball, but the boy's learning to understand and accept loss in life.
