

Chapter – 9 | Family and Community

QUIZ
PART-01

1. What is the most fundamental and ancient unit of any society?
- A. Hospital
  - B. Family
  - C. School
  - D. Government
- (B)

Explanation: The family is described as the fundamental and most ancient unit of society where all social relationships begin.

2. Which of the following best describes a joint family?
- A. Only parents and children living together
  - B. Only grandparents and grandchildren living together
  - C. Several generations living together
  - D. Single parent with children
- (C)

Explanation: A joint family includes multiple generations such as grandparents, parents, uncles, aunts, siblings, and cousins living together.

3. What is a nuclear family?
- A. Entire clan living under one roof
  - B. Only brothers and cousins
  - C. A couple and their children
  - D. A religious family unit
- (C)

Explanation: A nuclear family typically consists of a couple and their children, and sometimes just one parent and children.

4. Which value is not typically taught within Indian families?
- A. Ahimsa (Non-Violence)
  - B. Dāna (Giving)
  - C. Sevā (Service)
  - D. Greed
- (D)

Explanation: Greed contradicts the core Indian family values such as non-violence, generosity, service, and sacrifice.

5. What principle is emphasized as important in Indian culture?
- A. Ignoring responsibilities
  - B. Seeking luxury
  - C. Following one's dharma (duty)
  - D. Competing with family members
- (C)

Explanation: Following one's dharma, or duty, is a central principle taught in Indian family and cultural systems.

6. In most Indian languages, how are cousins typically referred to?
- A. Friends
  - B. Cousins
  - C. Neighbours
  - D. Brothers and Sisters
- (D)

Explanation: There is no separate word for cousins in most Indian languages; they are simply called brothers and sisters.

7. Which of the following is not usually considered a family responsibility?
- A. Supporting each other
  - B. Teaching values
  - C. Ignoring traditions
  - D. Sharing household duties
- (C)

Explanation: Families play an essential role in passing down traditions and involving everyone in shared responsibilities.

8. What role does the family play in a child's development?
- A. Provides financial independence early
  - B. Acts as a school teaching values and traditions
  - C. Limits growth
  - D. Encourages isolation
- (B)

Explanation: The family is described as a school that teaches children important values like service, non-violence, and sacrifice.

9. What do children typically learn as they grow within a family?
- A. How to avoid responsibility
  - B. How to dominate others
  - C. Family traditions and practices
  - D. How to live alone
- (C)

Explanation: As children grow, they take on responsibilities and learn family traditions and cultural practices.

10. Which family members are typically part of a joint family system?
- A. Only parents
  - B. Only siblings
  - C. Grandparents, uncles, aunts, parents, cousins
  - D. Friends and neighbours
- (C)

Explanation: A joint family includes extended family members across multiple generations living together and sharing responsibilities.