

CHAPTER-11 | Story Writing

QUIZ-01

1. What is the most essential element of a story?

- A. Long paragraphs
- B. A clear plot
- C. Fancy vocabulary
- D. Complex grammar (B)

Explanation : A story revolves around a plot, which gives it structure and direction.

2. Which of the following should a story include?

- A. Random facts
- B. A moral, if applicable
- C. Formal letter format
- D. Email greetings (B)

Explanation : Stories, especially in academic settings, often end with a moral or lesson.

3. What should the beginning of a story do?

- A. End the conflict
- B. Introduce characters and setting
- C. Present the conclusion
- D. Describe the title (B)

Explanation : The beginning introduces the characters, time, and place, setting the stage for the plot.

4. Which of the following is an appropriate way to start a story?

- A. "This is to inform you..."
- B. "Once upon a time..."
- C. "Your sincerely..."
- D. "Regards," (B)

Explanation : Traditional story openings like "Once upon a time..." effectively set a narrative tone.

5. What does the "climax" of a story refer to?

- A. The beginning of the story
- B. The highest point of tension or conflict
- C. The list of characters
- D. The ending of the story (B)

Explanation : The climax is the moment of greatest drama or turning point in a story.

6. In story writing, characters should be:

- A. Only animals
- B. Detailed and relatable
- C. Only fictional
- D. Not described at all (B)

Explanation : Well-developed characters make a story engaging and believable.

7. What should the conclusion of a story do?

- A. Introduce a new character
- B. Leave the reader confused
- C. Resolve the conflict and provide closure
- D. Repeat the introduction (C)

Explanation : A good conclusion ties up loose ends and gives the reader a sense of completion.

8. What kind of language should be used in story writing?

- A. Informal and creative
- B. Formal and official
- C. Only scientific terms
- D. Report-style language (A)

Explanation : Stories allow for creative expression, so informal and vivid language is preferred.

9. In story writing, dialogue is used to:

- A. Increase word count
- B. Confuse the reader
- C. Develop characters and advance the plot
- D. Explain grammar rules (C)

Explanation : Dialogue brings characters to life and helps move the story forward.

10. What role does the title of a story play?

- A. It replaces the conclusion
- B. It gives instructions
- C. It creates interest and hints at the theme
- D. It's not important (C)

Explanation : A good title captures the reader's attention and gives a clue about the story's content.