

Chapter – 9 | Family and Community

QUIZ
PART-03

1. What is a common responsibility shared within families?
A. Building houses
B. Cleaning and helping with homework
C. Creating new laws
D. Managing schools (B)

Explanation: Family rules often include sharing responsibilities like cleaning, cooking, and helping with homework.

2. Why are rules important in families and neighborhoods?
A. To enforce punishment
B. To encourage competition
C. To maintain harmony and mutual support
D. To isolate individuals (C)

Explanation: Rules ensure cooperation, respect, and support among members of a family or community.

3. What value is demonstrated when someone sacrifices their needs for others in the family?
A. Competition
B. Freedom
C. Duty and sacrifice
D. Disobedience (C)

Explanation: Sacrificing personal needs reflects important values like duty, care, and commitment to the group.

4. What issue did the Bhil community address through community action?
A. Floods
B. Lack of food
C. Education crisis
D. Water shortage (D)

Explanation: The Bhils responded to a water crisis by planting trees and building rainwater harvesting structures.

5. What action showed the Bhil community's collective responsibility?
A. Organizing a protest
B. Seeking government funding
C. Tree planting and trench digging
D. Building factories (C)

Explanation: Their commitment to environmental conservation through tree planting and trench digging reflects collective responsibility.

6. What was one key form of community support during the Chennai floods?
A. Distribution of school textbooks
B. Street protests
C. Religious groups cooking and distributing food
D. Private companies offering jobs (C)

Explanation: Spiritual and religious groups provided large amounts of food to those affected by the floods.

7. Who initiated an educational effort for underprivileged children in Ahmedabad?
A. Mahesh Sharma
B. Tenzing Norgay
C. Kamal Parmar
D. Jawaharlal Nehru (C)

Explanation: Kamal Parmar started teaching children on the street and provided them with meals after work.

8. What did Kamal Parmar offer to the children along with tuition?
A. School uniforms
B. Free dinner
C. Scholarships
D. Transportation (B)

Explanation: Kamal Parmar not only taught the children but also served them free dinner daily.

9. What lesson can be learned from stories like Shalini's regarding family rules?
A. Rules are unnecessary
B. All rules benefit everyone equally
C. Some rules may be unfair but teach sacrifice and duty
D. Children should not follow any rules (C)

Explanation: Shalini's story shows that while some rules may seem unfair, they promote important values like sacrifice and responsibility.

10. What quality was shown by local teachers and students who joined Kamal Parmar's effort?
A. Curiosity
B. Competition
C. Volunteering and compassion
D. Authority (C)

Explanation: Teachers and students who joined Kamal Parmar demonstrated community spirit and willingness to serve.