

CHAPTER-3 | A Tiger in the Zoo

QUIZ
PART-01

1. Who is the poet of A Tiger in the Zoo?

- A. Robert Frost
- B. George Leslie Norris
- C. William Wordsworth
- D. John Keats (B)

Explanation: A Tiger in the Zoo was written by George Leslie Norris, a Welsh poet known for his vivid imagery and deep empathy for nature.

2. What does the tiger do inside its cage?

- A. It sleeps peacefully
- B. It paces back and forth quietly
- C. It roars loudly to scare visitors
- D. It hunts for prey (B)

Explanation: The tiger walks silently within the limited space of its cage, expressing its quiet rage and frustration with captivity.

3. How does the poet describe the tiger's movement in the zoo?

- A. Swift and powerful
- B. Slow and lethargic
- C. Graceful and agile
- D. Quiet and stealthy (D)

Explanation: The poet describes the tiger's movement as quiet and stealthy, emphasizing the silent anger of the trapped animal.

4. What emotion is associated with the tiger's movements in the cage?

- A. Joy
- B. Sadness
- C. Anger
- D. Excitement (C)

Explanation: The tiger's movements reveal his suppressed anger—his "quiet rage" represents his frustration and helplessness in captivity.

5. How does the poet contrast the tiger's life in the zoo with his natural habitat?

- A. By showing the difference between silence and noise
- B. By describing the tiger's confinement and his freedom in the wild
- C. By showing the difference between day and night
- D. By comparing the zoo with the forest (B)

Explanation: The poet contrasts the tiger's restricted life in a cage with his imagined free life in the jungle where he can roam, hunt, and live naturally.

6. What is the central theme of the poem?

- A. Freedom and captivity
- B. Love and romance
- C. Adventure and exploration
- D. Friendship and loyalty (A)

Explanation: The poem focuses on the contrast between the tiger's freedom in the wild and his confinement in the zoo, symbolizing the loss of liberty.

7. What do the "brilliant stars" in the last line of the poem symbolize?

- A. The tiger's loneliness
- B. The visitors to the zoo
- C. The beauty of nature
- D. The brightness of the zoo lights (A)

Explanation: The "brilliant stars" symbolize the tiger's isolation and his yearning for freedom as he stares at them helplessly through the bars.

8. What does the phrase "pads of velvet quiet" suggest?

- A. The tiger's comfort in the cage
- B. The silent, soft movement of the tiger
- C. The smooth surface of the cage
- D. The zoo's calm atmosphere (B)

Explanation: The phrase describes the tiger's soft paws that move silently, emphasizing his grace and controlled strength even in captivity.

9. What quality of the tiger is highlighted through "He should be lurking in shadow"?

- A. His laziness
- B. His shyness
- C. His natural hunting instinct
- D. His curiosity (C)

Explanation: The line shows the tiger's natural hunting behavior, as he should be hiding and watching his prey in the wild rather than being caged.

10. What message does the poem convey?

- A. Animals are dangerous and should be caged.
- B. Humans must protect wildlife and respect their freedom.
- C. Zoos are the best place for wild animals.
- D. Captivity makes animals happier. (B)

Explanation: The poem conveys empathy for wild animals, urging humans to protect them and allow them to live freely in their natural habitats.