

CHAPTER-2 | The Raven and the Fox

QUIZ PART-04

1. What do "Such feathers" refer to?

- A. Shiny and beautiful feathers
- B. Grey and long feathers
- C. Short and dull feathers
- D. Broken feathers (A)

Explanation : The Fox praises the Raven's feathers as beautiful.

2. Why would the birds call the Raven "King"?

- A. If he danced
- B. If he flew away
- C. If he sang
- D. If he shared food (C)

Explanation: The Fox says the birds would call the Raven king if he sang.

3. Why does the Fox address the Raven as "Sir"?

- A. To show real respect
- B. To flatter him
- C. To ask for help
- D. To warn him (B)

Explanation: The Fox uses "Sir" only to flatter the Raven.

4. Why did the Raven open his beak?

- A. To drink water
- B. To call other birds
- C. To sing
- D. To laugh (C)

Explanation : The Raven opened his beak to sing after the Fox praised him.

5. Complete the analogy: Fox : clever :: Raven :

- _____
- A. Proud
 - B. Foolish
 - C. Wise
 - D. Brave (B)

Explanation: The Fox is clever, while the Raven acts foolishly.

6. Why did the Raven forget that his voice was a croak?

- A. Because of pride
- B. Because of fear
- C. Because of hunger
- D. Because of sleep (A)

Explanation: The Raven became proud after hearing the Fox's praise.

7. How does Reynard make the Raven sing?

- A. By giving him food
- B. By frightening him
- C. By flattering him
- D. By teaching him music (C)

Explanation: Reynard uses flattering words to make the Raven sing.

8. Why does Reynard say pride is not wise?

- A. Pride leads to loss
- B. Pride gives food
- C. Pride makes one strong
- D. Pride helps one fly (A)

Explanation: The Raven's pride causes him to lose the morsel.

9. Why is the teaching a surprise?

- A. The Raven becomes king
- B. The Fox loses the food
- C. The Raven learns after being tricked
- D. The woods disappear (C)

Explanation: The lesson comes suddenly when the Raven loses his food.

10. What should a person do when someone praises them too much?

- A. Believe everything immediately
- B. Become proud
- C. Stay alert and think carefully
- D. Ignore everyone forever (C)

Explanation : Too much praise may be flattery, so one should stay alert.