

Chapter – 2 | The Raven and the Fox

QUIZ-01

1. Where was Mr Raven sitting?

- A. On a stone
- B. On a branch
- C. Near a river
- D. Inside a nest (B)

Explanation : Mr Raven was perched upon a limb, which means he was sitting on a branch.

2. What did Mr Raven hold in his beak?

- A. A leaf
- B. A flower
- C. A morsel of food
- D. A small stick (C)

Explanation : The poem says that the Raven held a morsel in his great big beak.

3. What was the name of the fox?

- A. Mahipati
- B. Reynard
- C. Rama
- D. Bunty (B)

Explanation : The fox in the poem is called Reynard.

4. Why did the Fox praise the Raven?

- A. To become his friend
- B. To make him fly away
- C. To trick him into singing
- D. To learn a song from him (C)

Explanation : The Fox praised the Raven so that he would open his beak to sing and drop the food.

5. What did the Fox call the Raven?

- A. A foolish bird
- B. A handsome bird
- C. A weak bird
- D. A noisy bird (B)

Explanation : The Fox called the Raven a handsome bird to flatter him.

6. What was the Raven's voice like?

- A. A sweet song
- B. A loud roar
- C. A croak
- D. A whistle (C)

Explanation : The poem says that the Raven's voice was just a croak.

7. What happened when the Raven opened his beak?

- A. The Fox ran away
- B. The morsel fell down
- C. The Raven flew away
- D. The birds made him king (B)

Explanation : When the Raven opened his beak, the morsel of food fell down.

8. What did the Fox do after the food fell down?

- A. He laughed
- B. He cried
- C. He sang
- D. He slept (A)

Explanation : The poem says, "Ha-ha!" laughed the Fox.

9. What should we ignore according to the poem?

- A. Honest advice
- B. Hard work
- C. Sweet words that flatter us
- D. Friends who help us (C)

Explanation : The Fox teaches that we should ignore sweet words that only make us feel proud.

10. What is the main lesson of the poem?

- A. Pride is unwise
- B. Singing is always useful
- C. Food should be shared
- D. Ravens are better than foxes (A)

Explanation : The poem teaches that too much pride is foolish and can make us lose what we have.