

CHAPTER - 04 | : KINDNESS

QUIZ-01

Q1. When do the Kashmiri vendors travel to cities to sell their goods?

- A. At the beginning of the rainy season
- B. At the end of winter season
- C. At the end of rainy season and beginning of winter
- D. During summer

Answer: C

Explanation: The vendors come to the city when the rainy season ends and winter begins, to sell their handcrafted goods.

Q2. What kind of goods do the Kashmiri vendors sell?

- A. Only fruits and vegetables
- B. Handcrafted shawls, purses, blankets, and carpets
- C. Books and toys
- D. Pots and pans

Answer: B

Explanation: The vendors sell beautiful handcrafted items like shawls, purses, blankets, and carpets made in Kashmir.

Q3. Why is life hard for the Kashmiri vendors?

- A. They travel long distances and stay in cheap hotels
- B. They earn a lot of money easily
- C. They live in comfortable houses
- D. They sell goods from home

Answer: A

Explanation: Their lives are difficult because they travel far from Kashmir, stay in cheap hotels, and walk all day carrying heavy loads to find buyers.

Q4. Why was the author surprised when his brother-in-law called the vendors?

- A. He thought his brother-in-law wanted to scold them
- B. He knew they did not need anything from the vendors
- C. He believed the vendors were his friends
- D. He wanted to buy everything

Answer: B

Explanation: The author was surprised because his brother-in-law did not need any Kashmiri goods but still called the vendors inside.

Q5. What did the brother-in-law ask his wife to do for the vendors?

- A. To buy a shawl
- B. To bring tea and food for them
- C. To close the door
- D. To ask them to leave

Answer: B

Explanation: Out of kindness, the brother-in-law asked his wife to serve tea and food to the hungry vendors.

Q6. Why did the vendors hesitate to eat the food at first?

- A. They were not hungry
- B. They did not like the food
- C. They were shy and proud
- D. They had already eaten

Answer: C

Explanation: The vendors hesitated because they had their pride and did not want to accept charity easily.

Q7. What made the author feel sad and guilty?

- A. The vendors refused to sell
- B. The vendors were rude
- C. He thought they were being called without purpose
- D. He lost his money

Answer: C

Explanation: The author felt guilty because he thought his brother-in-law called the vendors just to talk and not to help them.

Q8. What did the brother-in-law pretend in order to offer food to the vendors?

- A. That he was their friend
- B. That he was hungry
- C. That he wanted to buy their goods
- D. That he was rich

Answer: C

Explanation: He pretended to be interested in buying their goods so that the vendors would accept his offer of food without feeling embarrassed.

Q9. What quality of the brother-in-law is best shown in this story?

- A. His cleverness
- B. His kindness and compassion
- C. His laziness
- D. His anger

Answer: B

Explanation: The brother-in-law's kind and thoughtful action of feeding the hungry vendors shows his compassion and empathy.

Q10. What is the main message of the story "Kindness"?

- A. Always buy handmade goods
- B. Treat everyone with respect and kindness
- C. Travel to Kashmir in winter
- D. Bargain with vendors

Answer: B

Explanation: The story teaches that true kindness means helping others with respect and understanding their dignity.

DOWNLOAD MISSION GYAN APP