- D. ABBAAB (B)

Explanation: The poem follows the rhyme scheme ABCBDB, creating a smooth lyrical flow.

2. What literary device is used in the line "Those great honey-coloured ramparts at your ear"?

- A. Simile
- B. Metaphor
- C. Alliteration
- D. Personification (B)

Explanation: The phrase is a metaphor comparing Anne's yellow hair to defensive walls (ramparts), symbolizing beauty as a barrier.

3. What does Anne Gregory's "yellow hair" symbolize?

- A. Intelligence
- B. Spiritual strength
- C. Physical beauty
- D. Kindness (C)

Explanation: Her "yellow hair" symbolizes physical beauty and the external aspects of attraction.

4. Why are young men "thrown into despair" according to the young man?

- A. Because Anne Gregory ignores them
- B. Because they are unable to see beyond her outer beauty
- C. Because she dyes her hair different colours
- D. Because she loves only herself (B)

Explanation: The young man says her beauty, especially her yellow hair, makes men despair since they can't see her inner self.

5. What colours does Anne Gregory mention when talking about dyeing her hair?

- A. Pink, blue, green
- B. Brown, black, carrot
- C. Grey, silver, white
- D. Red, violet, orange (B)

Explanation: She says she can dye her hair brown, black, or carrot to test if men would love her for herself.

6. What is the message Anne Gregory wants to convey by saying she can dye her hair?

- A. She dislikes her hair colour
- B. Beauty can be changed easily, but inner qualities matter
- C. She wants to impress others
- D. Changing appearance changes personality (B)

Explanation: Anne Gregory implies that external beauty is temporary and superficial, while real love should value inner character.

7. What poetic device is used in the phrase "Brown or black or carrot"?

- A. Alliteration
- B. Repetition
- C. Symbolism
- D. Assonance (A)

Explanation: The repetition of the initial consonant sound "b" in brown and black demonstrates alliteration.

8. Which line is repeated in the poem for emphasis?

- A. "Never shall a young man..."
- B. "And not your yellow hair."
- C. "Thrown into despair."
- D. "But I can get a hair dye." (B)

Explanation: The line "Love you for yourself alone / And not your yellow hair" is repeated to stress the theme of inner love.

9. Who had declared that only God could love a person for who they truly are?

- A. The young man
- B. The poet
- C. An old religious man
- D. Anne Gregory (C)

Explanation: The poet recalls that an old religious man said only God loves beyond appearances.

10. What universal truth does the poem "For Anne Gregory" highlight?

- A. People are judged mainly by their looks
- B. Hair colour reflects personality
- C. Love depends on wealth
- D. Appearance is more important than kindness (A)

Explanation: The poem conveys that humans often judge others based on physical beauty rather than inner worth.
