

CHAPTER-7 | The Trees

QUIZ
PART-02

1. Which poetic device is shown in "long letters"?
- Simile
  - Alliteration
  - Personification
  - Anaphora

(B)

Explanation: The repeated l sound in "long letters" is an example of alliteration.

2. "Like newly discharged patients" is an example of:
- Metaphor
  - Simile
  - Repetition
  - Enjambment

(B)

Explanation: A simile compares two things using "like" or "as." Here, the boughs are compared to newly discharged patients.

3. Which poetic device is used in the repeated word "no" in the first stanza?
- Anaphora
  - Imagery
  - Oxymoron
  - Assonance

(A)

Explanation: Repetition of the same word at the beginning of lines or phrases is called anaphora.

4. "The trees are moving out" is an example of:
- Simile
  - Personification
  - Hyperbole
  - Irony

(B)

Explanation: Trees are given a human action, so this is personification.

5. In the poem, trees are compared with women. This makes the poem an example of:
- Extended metaphor
  - Alliteration
  - Onomatopoeia
  - Refrain

(A)

Explanation: The PDF clearly says the whole poem works as an extended metaphor where trees are compared with women.

6. When a sentence continues to the next line without pause, it is called:

- Repetition
- Enjambment
- Simile
- Symbolism

(B)

Explanation: The PDF defines enjambment as the continuation of the same sentence into the next line without a pause.

7. Which poetic device creates a strong picture in the lines "Where no bird could sit / no insect hide / no sun bury its feet in shadow"?
- Imagery
  - Allusion
  - Pun
  - Metonymy

(A)

Explanation: These lines create a vivid visual scene, so they are an example of imagery.

8. Which line is given as an example of simile in the PDF?
- The trees are stumbling forward
  - The moon is broken like a mirror
  - All night the roots work
  - The forest was empty

(B)

Explanation: "The moon is broken like a mirror" uses "like" to compare two things, so it is a simile.

9. What is the effect of repeating "the forest that was empty all these ..." in the poem?
- It adds humour
  - It emphasizes the emptiness of the forest
  - It shortens the poem
  - It changes the rhyme scheme

(B)

Explanation: The repeated line highlights how empty the forest had been before the trees returned.

10. Which of these is given as an example of alliteration in the PDF?
- like a voice
  - forest from
  - the trees are moving
  - like a mirror

(B)

Explanation: The repeated f sound in "forest from" makes it an example of alliteration.
