

Poem-4 | The Lake of Isle of Innisfree

QUIZ-01

1. What does the poet plan to build at Innisfree?

- A. A stone castle
- B. A small cabin of clay and wattles
- C. A wooden hut
- D. A large house of bricks (B)

Explanation: The poet mentions building "a small cabin of clay and wattles," emphasizing simplicity and harmony with nature.

2. How many rows of beans does the poet want to plant at Innisfree?

- A. Ten
- B. Seven
- C. Nine
- D. Twelve (C)

Explanation: The poet explicitly states, "Nine bean-rows will I have there," showcasing his vision for self-sufficiency.

3. What sound does the poet associate with peace at Innisfree?

- A. The chirping of birds
- B. The buzzing of bees
- C. The lapping of lake water
- D. The rustling of leaves (C)

Explanation: The poet repeatedly refers to the "lake water lapping," symbolizing tranquility and its deep connection to his inner peace.

4. What does the phrase "peace comes dropping slow" symbolize?

- A. The gradual onset of dawn
- B. The poet's longing for serenity
- C. The steady flow of time
- D. The slow-moving waters of the lake (B)

Explanation: This phrase conveys the poet's appreciation for the calming and restorative qualities of nature.

5. What time of day does the poet describe as having a "purple glow"?

- A. Morning
- B. Noon
- C. Evening
- D. Midnight (B)

Explanation: The poet describes noon as having "a purple glow," illustrating the vivid beauty of natural light.

6. Which bird does the poet mention in the poem?

- A. Sparrow
- B. Linnet
- C. Nightingale
- D. Dove (B)

Explanation: The poet refers to "evenings full of the linnet's wings," highlighting the connection between nature and peace.

7. What does the poet hear in his "heart's core"?

- A. The chirping of crickets
- B. The sound of bees
- C. The lapping of lake water
- D. The wind rustling (C)

Explanation: Even when far away, the poet hears the lake's soothing sounds in his heart, symbolizing his longing for Innisfree.

8. What contrasts does the poet make between Innisfree and the city?

- A. Noise versus silence
- B. Tranquility versus chaos
- C. Grey pavements versus natural beauty
- D. All of the above (D)

Explanation: The poet contrasts Innisfree's natural serenity with the artificial and noisy environment of urban life.

9. What does the poet imply about the peace at Innisfree?

- A. It is found in solitude and nature.
- b) It is transient and temporary.
- C. It is an illusion created by memories.
- D. It is best experienced with others. (A)

Explanation: The poet finds peace in solitude and nature, reflected in his description of Innisfree.

10. How does the poet describe the morning at Innisfree?

- A. Full of bright sunlight
- B. Covered in fog
- C. Veiled and mystical
- D. Loud with bird songs (C)

Explanation: The poet uses the imagery "veils of the morning" to depict a serene and mystical atmosphere.