

CHAPTER-1 | Dust of Snow

QUIZ
PART-01

1. Who is the poet of the poem Dust of Snow?

- A. William Wordsworth
- B. Robert Frost
- C. John Keats
- D. P.B. Shelley (B)

Explanation: The poem Dust of Snow was written by Robert Lee Frost, an American poet whose works often reflect nature and human emotions.

2. What does the "Hemlock tree" symbolize in the poem?

- A. Beauty and joy
- B. Death and sorrow
- C. Peace and calmness
- D. Wisdom and strength (B)

Explanation: The Hemlock tree is a poisonous tree, symbolizing death and sorrow, contrasting with the life-giving nature of snow.

3. Which emotion did the poet experience before the snow fell on him?

- A. Excitement
- B. Regret
- C. Happiness
- D. Surprise (B)

Explanation: The poet says the snow "saved some part of a day I had rued," meaning he was regretting or feeling sorrowful before the snow changed his mood.

4. What effect did the dust of snow have on the poet?

- A. It made him angry.
- B. It changed his mood for the better.
- C. It made him sick.
- D. It made him laugh uncontrollably. (B)

Explanation: The dust of snow lifted the poet's spirits and changed his gloomy mood to a cheerful one.

5. What is the main theme of the poem?

- A. Nature's power to heal and uplift
- B. The destructive power of nature
- C. Human control over emotions
- D. The value of wealth and success (A)

Explanation: The poem highlights how small natural events can heal and bring positivity, emphasizing nature's healing power.

6. Which poetic device is prominently used in "The way a crow / Shook down on me"?

- A. Metaphor
- B. Simile
- C. Imagery
- D. Personification (C)

Explanation: The lines create a vivid image of the crow shaking snow onto the poet, which helps readers visualize the moment.

7. What does the "dust of snow" symbolize?

- A. Happiness in small things
- B. Burdens of life
- C. Cold-heartedness
- D. A bad omen (A)

Explanation: "Dust of snow" symbolizes small, seemingly insignificant moments that can bring happiness and change one's outlook.

8. What tone does the poem carry despite its serious message?

- A. Angry and tense
- B. Light and cheerful
- C. Sad and depressing
- D. Confused and uncertain (B)

Explanation: Though the poem conveys a deep message about transformation, its tone remains light and optimistic.

9. What lesson does the poem convey?

- A. Big events shape our lives the most.
- B. Nature can heal human sorrow.
- C. Regret cannot be overcome.
- D. Sadness is unavoidable. (B)

Explanation: The poet learns that nature's small acts can soothe grief and bring peace, teaching the power of natural healing.

10. What is the setting of the poem Dust of Snow?

- A. A sunny beach
- B. A snowy landscape with a tree and bird
- C. A desert with a cactus
- D. A rainy city street (B)

Explanation: The poem is set in a snowy landscape where a crow perched on a Hemlock tree shakes snow onto the poet.