

CHAPTER-1 | A Triumph of Surgery

QUIZ-01

1. Why was Mrs. Pumphrey worried about Tricki?

- A. He had stopped eating entirely.
- B. He was listless, malnourished, and overfed.
- C. He had been injured in an accident.
- D. He refused to walk with her. (B)

Explanation: Mrs. Pumphrey was worried because Tricki seemed listless and malnourished due to her excessive feeding habits, as mentioned explicitly in the story.

2. What additional food did Mrs. Pumphrey give Tricki to "help" him?

- A. Meat and bread
- B. Malt, cod-liver oil, and Horlicks
- C. Milk and rice
- D. Vegetables and fruits (B)

Explanation: Mrs. Pumphrey believed that providing malt, cod-liver oil, and Horlicks would build Tricki's strength, which only worsened his condition.

3. What was Tricki's only fault, according to the narrator?

- A. Laziness
- B. Greed
- C. Aggressiveness
- D. Illness (B)

Explanation: The narrator observed that Tricki's primary fault was greed, as he would never refuse food, contributing to his obesity and poor health.

4. What immediate solution did the narrator propose for Tricki's recovery?

- A. Giving him medicinal treatment
- B. Increasing his exercise
- C. Hospitalizing him for observation
- D. Changing his diet at home (C)

Explanation: The narrator suggested hospitalizing Tricki to monitor and control his diet and environment, which was crucial for his recovery.

Q5. How did Mrs. Pumphrey react when Tricki was taken to the clinic?

- A. She was indifferent.
- B. She was relieved.
- C. She was distraught and overly emotional.
- D. She was angry at the narrator. (C)

Explanation: Mrs. Pumphrey was distraught and even sent a large number of Tricki's belongings, showcasing her emotional attachment and concern for the dog.

6. What was Tricki's condition when he first arrived at the clinic?

- A. Playful and energetic
- B. Gloomy, motionless, and uninterested
- C. Hungry and barking continuously
- D. Scared and anxious (B)

Explanation: Tricki was initially motionless, uninterested, and gloomy, but he gradually recovered by interacting with other dogs and following a proper regimen.

7. How did the other dogs react to Tricki at the clinic?

- A. They ignored him after sniffing.
- B. They barked aggressively at him.
- C. They welcomed him enthusiastically.
- D. They avoided him entirely. (A)

Explanation: The other dogs sniffed Tricki briefly and found him uninteresting, leaving him alone initially, which changed as he began interacting.

8. What was the key factor in Tricki's recovery?

- A. The special medicines provided at the clinic
- B. Interacting with other dogs and exercise
- C. The food Mrs. Pumphrey sent to the clinic
- D. The extra care and pampering by the staff (B)

Explanation: Tricki recovered through exercise, play, and interaction with other dogs, as he became an active member of their group.

9. How did the narrator benefit from Tricki's stay at the clinic?

- A. Mrs. Pumphrey gave him money.
- B. They enjoyed the food and wine sent by Mrs. Pumphrey.
- C. The narrator became famous as a skilled vet.
- D. He gained a new permanent pet. (B)

Explanation: Mrs. Pumphrey sent eggs, wine, and brandy to "strengthen" Tricki, which the narrator and his partners enjoyed during the dog's stay.

10. Why did Mrs. Pumphrey call Tricki's recovery a "triumph of surgery"?

- A. She believed it involved a complex operation.
- B. She was unaware of the simple regimen used.
- C. The narrator claimed it was a surgical triumph.
- D. Tricki's illness was very rare. (B)

Explanation: Mrs. Pumphrey was unaware of the straightforward regimen involving exercise and diet that led to Tricki's recovery, perceiving it as a surgical miracle.
