

Poem – 3 | The Last Bargain

QUIZ-01

1. Who is the first character that offers to hire the speaker in the poem?

- A. A child
B. A king
C. An old man
D. A fair maid (B)

Explanation: The speaker first encounters a king in the morning who offers to hire him with his power, but the offer is declined.

2. What does the king represent in the poem?

- A. Wisdom
B. Wealth
C. Power
D. Happiness (C)

Explanation: The king, described as holding a sword, symbolizes power, which the speaker rejects as it does not lead to inner happiness.

3. Why does the speaker turn down the old man's offer?

- A. He dislikes the old man.
B. The offer was not genuine.
C. He values freedom over money.
D. The old man's coins were not enough. (C)

Explanation: The speaker declines the old man's offer of money, signifying that material wealth cannot buy true happiness or freedom.

4. What does the fair maid offer the speaker in the garden?

- A. Her love
B. A smile
C. Gold coins
D. Innocence (B)

Explanation: The fair maid offers her smile as a reward, but her happiness fades into sorrow, showing the transient nature of beauty and charm.

5. What time of day does the speaker meet the child?

- A. Morning
B. Afternoon
C. Evening
D. Night (C)

Explanation: The speaker meets the child on the beach in the evening, symbolizing the end of the speaker's search for fulfillment.

6. What is the significance of the child's offer to hire the speaker for 'nothing'?

- A. It reflects innocence and simplicity.
B. It shows a lack of understanding.
C. It represents wealth in disguise.
D. It indicates hidden sorrow. (A)

Explanation: The child's offer of nothing symbolizes freedom, innocence, and true happiness that comes without material attachments or power.

7. What is the main theme of the poem The Last Bargain?

- A. The pursuit of power
B. The fleeting nature of wealth
C. The search for true happiness
D. The importance of beauty (C)

Explanation: The poem explores the speaker's journey through power, wealth, and beauty, ultimately finding happiness in simplicity and freedom.

8. What literary device is primarily used in the line "The garden hedge was all a flower"?

- A. Metaphor
B. Personification
C. Imagery
D. Hyperbole (C)

Explanation: The phrase creates a vivid image of the setting, helping readers visualize the beauty of the garden in bloom.

9. How does the speaker feel after accepting the child's bargain?

- A. Confused
B. Free and happy
C. Regretful
D. Lonely (B)

Explanation: The speaker feels liberated and joyful after accepting the child's offer, as it aligns with his quest for genuine happiness and freedom.

10. What does the speaker's rejection of material offers convey?

- A. Disdain for society's values
B. Desire for self-importance
C. Preference for emotional fulfillment
D. A lack of ambition (C)

Explanation: The speaker rejects power, wealth, and charm, indicating a preference for spiritual and emotional satisfaction over materialistic gains.