

POEM-12 | Ajamil and the Tigers

QUIZ-01

1. Why were the tigers unable to hunt for 15 days and 16 nights?

- A. They were imprisoned by Ajamil
- B. The sheepdog guarded the sheep fiercely
- C. They had migrated to a new forest
- D. They had made a pact with Ajamil (B)

Explanation: The tigers couldn't get near the sheep because Ajamil had a new sheepdog who kept them away from the herd.

2. How did the tiger king return after his first solo attempt to confront the sheepdog?

- A. With sheep meat
- B. Triumphant and proud
- C. Injured with a black eye and his tail in a sling
- D. With other tigers (C)

Explanation: He returned defeated, wearing a black patch on his eye and a sling on his tail.

3. What was the sheepdog's reaction when the tiger king lied about their peaceful intentions?

- A. He barked loudly in anger
- B. He wagged his tail
- C. He kept making frantic signs in disgust
- D. He attacked the tigers again (C)

Explanation: The sheepdog was disgusted by the lies and made frantic signs, showing his frustration.

4. Why did Ajamil pretend to believe the tiger king's lies?

- A. He was unaware of the truth
- B. He feared the tigers
- C. He wanted to avoid confrontation
- D. He chose to act wise and diplomatic (D)

Explanation: Ajamil knowingly pretended to believe the lies, showing he wasn't a fool and used diplomacy.

5. What does Ajamil offer the tigers after their capture?

- A. A warning
- B. A fight
- C. A feast and friendship
- D. A new place to live (C)

Explanation: He invited them to dinner and proposed a long-term friendship treaty.

6. What message does the line "a full stomach for a common bond" convey?

- A. Shared hunger creates enemies
- B. Food and satisfaction can unite even opposites
- C. Starvation leads to conflict
- D. Shepherds must stay hungry (B)

Explanation: The line suggests that well-fed beings, even if different, can coexist peacefully.

7. How does the poem portray the sheepdog's character?

- A. Cowardly and unsure
- B. Honest and dutiful
- C. Lazy and ignorant
- D. Friendly and playful (B)

Explanation: The sheepdog is described as one who has never told a lie and is built along simpler, truthful lines.

8. What did Ajamil send with the tigers when they left?

- A. Weapons and guards
- B. A sheepdog and weapons
- C. Gifts like sheep, jackets, and wool
- D. A signed confession (C)

Explanation: Ajamil sent them back with sheep, leather jackets, and balls of wool.

9. What literary form does the poem closely follow?

- A. Sonnet
- B. Ballad
- C. Fable
- D. Limerick (C)

Explanation: The poem uses animals and a moral, aligning it with the characteristics of a fable.

10. What deeper political idea is suggested by Ajamil's character?

- A. Military power is the best solution
- B. Honest leaders are always deceived
- C. Real leadership lies in wise compromise
- D. Force should be used to suppress enemies (C)

Explanation: Ajamil represents a wise leader who understands politics and uses strategic compromise for peace.