

Chapter – 2 | The Rebel

QUIZ-01

1. Who is a rebel according to the poem?

- A. A person who always obeys rules
- B. A person who does the opposite of others
- C. A person who stays silent
- D. A person who avoids people (B)

Explanation : The poem describes a rebel as someone who always behaves differently from others.

2. What does the rebel do when everyone talks loudly?

- A. He talks louder
- B. He shouts
- C. He keeps quiet
- D. He leaves the place (C)

Explanation : The rebel keeps quiet when everyone else is talking loudly.

3. How does the rebel behave when everyone wears uniforms?

- A. He also wears uniform
- B. He refuses to dress
- C. He dresses differently
- D. He changes school (C)

Explanation : The rebel chooses to dress differently to stand apart from others.

4. What does the rebel do when everyone follows rules?

- A. He follows them
- B. He breaks them
- C. He makes new rules
- D. He ignores them silently (B)

Explanation : The rebel breaks rules when others follow them.

5. What does the rebel do when everyone else eats at the same time?

- A. He eats earlier
- B. He skips meals
- C. He eats later
- D. He eats with them (C)

Explanation : The rebel eats at a different time to show his rebellious nature.

6. What problem would arise if everyone became a rebel?

- A. Life would be exciting
- B. There would be no fun
- C. There would be confusion
- D. Everything would improve (C)

Explanation : The poet suggests that if everyone rebelled, life would become confusing.

7. What tone does the poet use in the poem?

- A. Angry
- B. Serious
- C. Humorous
- D. Sad (C)

Explanation : The poem uses humour to describe the rebel's behaviour.

8. What happens when everyone else says "Yes"?

- A. The rebel agrees
- B. The rebel remains silent
- C. The rebel says "No"
- D. The rebel leaves (C)

Explanation : The rebel always does the opposite, so he says "No."

9. Why does the poet say that a rebel is good in society?

- A. Rebels create problems
- B. Rebels entertain others
- C. Rebels make life interesting
- D. Rebels avoid work (C)

Explanation : The poet believes a rebel adds interest and variety to life.

10. What message does the poem convey?

- A. One should always rebel
- B. Rules should never be followed
- C. Being different is natural but balance is needed
- D. Society needs no rules (C)

Explanation : The poem suggests that while being different is natural, too much rebellion can cause disorder.