

CHAPTER-2 | The Sound of Music

QUIZ-01

1. How was Evelyn Glennie's hearing impairment discovered?

- A. During a school piano competition
- B. When her headmistress noticed her declining grades
- C. When she couldn't respond to her name being called
- D. During a visit to the Royal Academy of Music (C)

Explanation: Evelyn's mother realized something was wrong when Evelyn failed to respond to her name being called during a piano lesson. This marked the start of her diagnosis.

2. What advice did percussionist Ron Forbes give Evelyn?

- A. Play louder to hear better
- B. Use hearing aids while playing
- C. Sense sound through other parts of her body
- D. Focus only on high-pitched instruments (C)

Explanation: Ron Forbes encouraged Evelyn to sense sound vibrations through her body rather than her ears, a strategy that helped her excel as a percussionist.

3. What technique did Evelyn use to perceive music?

- A. Watching other musicians
- B. Feeling vibrations in her body
- C. Observing lip movements
- D. Using specialized instruments (B)

Explanation: Evelyn learned to perceive music through vibrations felt in her body, such as through her bare feet, fingers, and skin, enabling her to master percussion.

4. What recognition did Evelyn receive at the Royal Academy of Music?

- A. Highest scores in academy history
- B. The Soloist of the Year Award
- C. Admission without audition
- D. An honorary doctorate (A)

Explanation: Evelyn scored one of the highest marks in the academy's history, highlighting her exceptional talent despite her disability.

5. How does Evelyn inspire other deaf individuals?

- A. By conducting classes for young musicians
- B. By writing books on overcoming challenges
- C. By leading orchestras worldwide
- D. By playing only for deaf audiences (A)

Explanation: Evelyn inspires young deaf musicians by holding classes and showing them that limitations can be overcome with hard work and determination.

6. Why did Aurangzeb ban the pungi?

- A. It was played during political gatherings
- B. It produced a harsh, unpleasant sound
- C. It was associated with lower-class musicians
- D. It was seen as a symbol of rebellion (B)

Explanation: Aurangzeb banned the pungi because its shrill, unpleasant sound did not suit the royal court, leading to its later modification into the shehnai.

7. What inspired Bismillah Khan's music during his practice sessions?

- A. The temples of Varanasi
- B. The flowing waters of the Ganga
- C. Indian Independence movements
- D. His family's musical background (B)

Explanation: The flowing waters of the Ganga inspired Bismillah Khan to create new ragas, reflecting the spiritual and cultural essence of his music.

8. What historic role did Bismillah Khan play on 15 August 1947?

- A. Composed the national anthem
- B. Played Raag Kafi at the Red Fort
- C. Conducted a global orchestra performance
- D. Played at Gandhi's prayer meeting (B)

Explanation: Bismillah Khan performed Raag Kafi from the Red Fort on India's Independence Day, marking the event with a musical tribute to the nation.

9. Why did Bismillah Khan decline to establish a music school in the U.S.?

- A. He disliked American culture
- B. He couldn't leave the Ganga and Varanasi
- C. He preferred teaching in India
- D. He was uninterested in formal education (B)

Explanation: Bismillah Khan rejected the proposal to move to the U.S., stating he couldn't live without the spiritual connection of the Ganga and his homeland.

10. Which significant awards did Bismillah Khan receive during his lifetime?

- A. Bharat Ratna and Sangeet Natak Akademi Award
- B. Padma Shri and Padma Vibhushan
- C. Only Bharat Ratna
- D. Both A and B (D)

Explanation: Bismillah Khan received numerous prestigious awards, including the Bharat Ratna, Padma Vibhushan, and Sangeet Natak Akademi Award, recognizing his contributions to music.