

POEM-4 | Childhood

QUIZ-01

1. What is the central theme of the poem "Childhood"?

- A. The joy of growing up
- B. The poet's love for nature
- C. The loss of innocence and realization of adulthood
- D. The importance of education (C)

Explanation: The poem revolves around the poet's realization of losing his childhood innocence and becoming aware of adult hypocrisy and individuality.

2. What discovery leads the poet to question the existence of Heaven and Hell?

- A. Science books
- B. His teachers' lectures
- C. Geography lessons
- D. Religious scriptures (C)

Explanation: The poet realizes that Heaven and Hell are not found in Geography, implying they are imaginary.

3. What human behavior does the poet criticize in the second stanza?

- A. Greed
- B. Laziness
- C. Hypocrisy
- D. Ignorance (C)

Explanation: The poet observes that adults preach love but do not act lovingly, showing hypocrisy.

4. What does the poet mean by "my mind was really mine"?

- A. He became selfish
- B. He lost control of his thoughts
- C. He realized his capacity for independent thinking
- D. He started copying others (C)

Explanation: The line reflects the poet's realization of his ability to think for himself, marking the development of individuality.

5. What tone is evident in the line "It went to some forgotten place"?

- A. Joyful
- B. Humorous
- C. Nostalgic and reflective
- D. Angry (C)

Explanation: The poet expresses a nostalgic longing for his lost childhood, which is now hidden in memories.

6. Which stanza reflects the poet's realization of rationalism?

- A. First stanza
- B. Second stanza
- C. Third stanza
- D. Fourth stanza (A)

Explanation: In the first stanza, the poet realizes that Heaven and Hell are not real, showing rational thinking.

7. What literary device is used in the line "That's hidden in an infant's face"?

- A. Simile
- B. Metaphor
- C. Personification
- D. Symbolism (D)

Explanation: The phrase symbolizes that childhood remains only in young children, representing lost innocence.

8. In which stanza does the poet discover individuality?

- A. First
- B. Second
- C. Third
- D. Fourth (C)

Explanation: The poet understands that he can think independently, a clear sign of developing individuality.

9. How does the poet describe adults' behavior?

- A. Honest and kind
- B. Pretentious and loving
- C. Loving and wise
- D. Preachy but unloving (D)

Explanation: The poet notices that adults talk of love but do not act lovingly, revealing their pretentious nature.

10. What question does the poet ask repeatedly in the poem?

- A. Why did I grow up?
- B. Where did my innocence go?
- C. When did my childhood go?
- D. What is adulthood? (C)

Explanation: The poet repeatedly asks "When did my childhood go?" to reflect on the moments marking the end of innocence.