

Chapter - 12 | Grassroots Democracy — Part 3

:Local Government in Urban Areas

QUIZ

PART-01

- What is the primary goal of good governance in a democracy?
 - Increase taxes
 - Empower citizens and ensure participation
 - Expand military control
 - Centralize authority

(B)

Explanation: Good governance in a democracy focuses on empowering citizens and encouraging their active participation at all levels.

- Why is urban governance more complex than rural governance?
 - Urban areas are richer
 - Urban populations are less diverse
 - Urban areas are more complex and diverse
 - Rural areas follow outdated systems

(C)

Explanation: Urban areas are larger, denser, and more diverse, requiring more complex governance systems.

- What are Urban Local Bodies?
 - National government offices
 - Local governance structures in rural areas
 - Local governance structures in urban areas
 - Political parties in cities

(C)

Explanation: Urban Local Bodies are local governance structures specific to cities and towns.

- What does decentralization in urban local governance imply?
 - Central authority controls decisions
 - Only elected officials make decisions
 - Local communities actively participate in decision-making
 - No one is responsible for governance

(C)

Explanation: Decentralization means local people have a direct say in how their area is managed.

- What is the smallest unit of division in cities and towns?
 - Districts
 - Sectors
 - Wards
 - Colonies

(C)

Explanation: Cities and towns are divided into smaller administrative units called wards.

- What is a primary role of Ward Committees?
 - Controlling state taxes
 - Enforcing national policies
 - Organizing health camps and monitoring issues
 - Conducting elections

(C)

Explanation: Ward Committees organize events like health camps and report issues such as leaks or road damage.

- What is not typically a responsibility of Urban Local Bodies?
 - Maintaining burial grounds
 - Organizing international trade deals
 - Garbage collection and disposal
 - Checking implementation of government schemes

(B)

Explanation: Urban Local Bodies handle local infrastructure and services, not international trade.

- What should citizens do to support Participatory Democracy?
 - Depend entirely on officials
 - Ignore local issues
 - Take active interest in their locality
 - Focus only on national politics

(C)

Explanation: Citizens must be actively involved and show concern for their surroundings to ensure effective local governance.

- Which activity supports Participatory Democracy in urban areas?
 - Selling private land
 - Building flyovers alone
 - Reporting water leakages
 - Ignoring municipal rules

(C)

Explanation: Reporting problems like water leakages helps authorities address issues promptly, supporting democratic participation.

- Which of the following describes Participatory Democracy best?
 - Governance by one ruler
 - Decisions made only by officials
 - Public involvement in local governance
 - Focus on rural areas only

(C)

Explanation: Participatory Democracy ensures that citizens are involved in governance, especially in local-level decision-making.