

POEM-8 | For Elkana

QUIZ-01

1. What does the poet and his wife do on the warm April evening?
 A. Go for a walk
 B. Watch television indoors
 C. Sit on the stone steps with chairs
 D. Read books silently (C)

Explanation: They drag their chairs down the stone steps and sit there, enjoying the evening breeze.

2. What triggers the child to speak during the family moment?
 A. The broken window-pane B. His parents' silence
 C. His hunger D. The moonlight (C)

Explanation: The child speaks with determination because he is hungry and wants dinner immediately.

3. What is the boy's physical stance when he declares his need?
 A. Sitting cross-legged B. Lying on the grass
 C. Standing with legs apart and chin lifted
 D. Standing behind his mother (C)

Explanation: He stands with legs well apart and his chin uplifted like a crescent moon, showing confidence.

4. What unites the husband and wife in an "unusual rapport"?
 A. Their mutual love for poetry
 B. Their shared silent thought about disciplining their son
 C. Their admiration for the evening
 D. Their decision to ignore the child (B)

Explanation: Both mentally agree that "Children Must be Disciplined," even though it is unspoken.

5. How does the boy respond to the mother's "five minutes" delay?
 A. He agrees and waits patiently
 B. He goes inside on his own
 C. He repeats his demand with more urgency
 D. He begins to cry (C)

Explanation: He insists that he is hungry now and argues he won't be hungry in five minutes.

6. What does the father inwardly feel about the child's argument?
 A. He disagrees and scolds him
 B. He admires it and finds it logical
 C. He ignores it completely
 D. He compares it to his own logic (B)

Explanation: The father finds the child's logic convincing and believes he deserves dinner immediately.

7. Which emotion ultimately binds the family together at the end?
 A. Frustration B. Laughter
 C. Anger D. Guilt (B)

Explanation: The wife's delightful laughter unites the family, leading them indoors together.

8. What quality of the poem transforms a simple domestic scene into poetry?
 A. Dramatic dialogue
 B. Rich metaphor and rhyme
 C. Understatement and poetic asides
 D. Use of historical references (C)

Explanation: The poem uses understated humor and asides to evoke deeper meaning from a mundane event.

9. What does the capitalisation in "Children Must be Disciplined" signify?
 A. A headline from a newspaper
 B. A sarcastic tone emphasizing social expectation
 C. The start of a new poem
 D. A school rule (B)

Explanation: Capitalisation adds emphasis, reflecting the ironic seriousness of the parental thought.

10. What does the father mean by the phrase "more attractive view that opens up behind my eyes"?
 A. He is watching TV
 B. He prefers to escape into his thoughts
 C. He closes his eyes to sleep
 D. He turns to look at the moon (B)

Explanation: The poet turns inward to avoid disagreement, choosing the mental peace of his imagination.