

CHAPTER-1 | Dust of Snow

QUIZ
PART-02

1. What does the phrase "dust of snow" refer to in the poem?
A. A heavy snowfall
B. Particles of snow falling lightly
C. A snowstorm
D. A pile of ice (B)

Explanation: The phrase "dust of snow" refers to fine particles of snow that fall gently from the tree onto the poet, symbolizing small but meaningful natural events.

2. How does the fall of snow affect the poet?
A. It makes him angry.
B. It frightens him.
C. It refreshes and changes his mood.
D. It makes him tired. (C)

Explanation: The falling snow lifts the poet's spirits and transforms his sad mood into one of cheerfulness and appreciation for nature.

3. Which poetic device is used in the line "The way a crow / Shook down on me"?
A. Personification
B. Alliteration
C. Imagery
D. Metaphor (B)

Explanation: The poet uses vivid imagery to make readers visualize the crow shaking the snow from the tree onto him.

4. What kind of bird is the crow in this poem usually associated with?
A. Peace and purity
B. Happiness and beauty
C. Tragedy and bad omens
D. Intelligence and wit (C)

Explanation: The crow is rarely mentioned in poetry and is generally seen as a symbol of sadness, bad luck, or something ominous.

5. What type of tree is the Hemlock?
A. A beautiful flowering tree
B. A poisonous tree with white flowers
C. A fruit-bearing tree
D. A symbol of celebration (B)

Explanation: The Hemlock tree is a poisonous plant with small white flowers, symbolizing sadness and death in the poem.

6. Why does the poet choose the Hemlock tree instead of a more beautiful one like maple or oak?
A. To represent his sadness more effectively
B. Because it is his favorite tree
C. To describe a poisonous plant scientifically
D. To create a positive image of nature (A)

Explanation: The poet chooses the Hemlock tree because it matches the gloomy tone of his mood and intensifies the feeling of sorrow.

7. What do the crow and the Hemlock tree together symbolize?
A. Joy and hope
B. Power and strength
C. Sorrow and death
D. Beauty and grace (C)

Explanation: Both the crow and Hemlock tree represent sorrow and death, reflecting the poet's sad state before nature changes his mood.

8. What does the "dust of snow" represent in contrast to the crow and the Hemlock tree?
A. The arrival of spring
B. Nature's power to cause harm
C. A moment of joy and positivity
D. The coming of night (C)

Explanation: The dust of snow symbolizes joy, positivity, and transformation, contrasting the otherwise gloomy symbols in the poem.

9. Which poetic devices are present in the poem according to the acronym "S-E-A-M-I-C"?
A. Simile, Enjambment, Alliteration, Metaphor, Imagery, Contrast
B. Symbolism, Enjambment, Alliteration, Metaphor, Imagery, Contrast
C. Sound, Enjambment, Assonance, Metaphor, Irony, Contrast
D. Symbolism, Emotion, Alliteration, Metaphor, Irony, Comparison (B)

Explanation: The poem uses several poetic devices summarized by "S-E-A-M-I-C": Symbolism, Enjambment, Alliteration, Metaphor, Imagery, and Contrast.

10. What broader message does the poet convey through this poem?
A. Sadness lasts forever
B. Small moments in nature can bring great joy
C. Life is full of misfortune
D. Nature is cruel and indifferent (B)

Explanation: The poem teaches that even small natural occurrences can bring happiness and change one's outlook, showing nature's healing power.