

CHAPTER-8 | Bholi

QUIZ
PART-02

1. What fascinated Bholi when she entered the classroom for the first time?
- The benches and blackboard
 - The colourful pictures on the walls
 - The teacher's dress
 - The noise of the girls

(B)

Explanation: Bholi was attracted to the colourful pictures of animals like the horse, goat, parrot, and cow, which reminded her of familiar sights.

2. What was Bholi's reaction when the teacher asked her name?
- She replied confidently
 - She cried and stammered helplessly
 - She ran out of the class
 - She remained silent

(B)

Explanation: Bholi stammered "Bh-Bho..." and then burst into tears, unable to speak further.

3. How did the teacher address Bholi after noticing her distress?
- Sternly
 - Softly and soothingly
 - Ignorantly
 - Mockingly

(B)

Explanation: For the first time in her life, Bholi was addressed kindly and soothingly, which touched her heart.

4. What achievement made Bholi feel relieved during her first lesson?
- She drew a picture on the board
 - She managed to say her full name
 - She read a full page fluently
 - She answered a question correctly

(B)

Explanation: With encouragement, she finally managed to say "Bholi," which felt like a great achievement to her.

5. What assurance did the teacher give Bholi about her stammering?
- She would always have difficulty speaking
 - No one would laugh at her again
 - If she shed her fear, she would speak like everyone else
 - She must practice at home every day

(C)

Explanation: The teacher told Bholi that once she overcame her fear, she would be able to speak fluently like others.

6. What gift did the teacher give Bholi at the end of the class?
- A pencil
 - A slate
 - A book full of pictures and words
 - A necklace

(C)

Explanation: The teacher gave Bholi a colourful picture book with words in big letters, promising her progress if she came daily.

7. How did Bholi feel after receiving encouragement and the book?
- As if the temple bells rang and trees blossomed
 - As if she had failed again
 - Nervous and doubtful
 - Sad and lonely

(A)

Explanation: She felt a new hope and happiness, imagining temple bells ringing and trees blossoming with flowers.

8. What major change happened in the village with time?
- It remained the same
 - It grew into a small town with a high school and cinema
 - It became deserted
 - It became a city with factories

(B)

Explanation: The village developed into a small town with a high school, cinema, cotton ginning mill, and a train stop.

9. Who proposed marriage to Bholi later?
- A young teacher
 - Bishamber, a wealthy but middle-aged man
 - A poor farmer
 - A distant cousin

(B)

Explanation: Bishamber, a rich shopkeeper with property and money in the bank, proposed to marry Bholi despite being middle-aged and lame.

10. What opinion did Ramlal's wife have about Bholi's marriage proposal?
- It was unsuitable because of Bishamber's age
 - It was fortunate since he was wealthy and asked no dowry
 - It should be rejected
 - It would be better to wait for a younger groom

(B)

Explanation: Ramlal's wife believed Bholi was lucky to get such a proposal because Bishamber was wealthy and demanded no dowry.