

CHAPTER-1 | THREE QUESTION

QUIZ
PART-01

Q1. What made the king believe he would never fail in his actions?

- A. His army's strength
- B. His wealth
- C. Knowing the answers to three questions
- D. Advice from priests

Answer: C

Explanation: The king believed that knowing the right time, the right people, and the right work would ensure success.

Q2. What reward did the king promise for correct answers to his questions?

- A. A position in the court
- B. A large sum of money
- C. Land and property
- D. Royal protection

Answer: B

Explanation: The king announced a large monetary reward for anyone who could answer the three questions.

Q3. Why was the king not satisfied with the answers given by the wise men?

- A. They refused to answer
- B. They demanded more rewards
- C. Their answers were different from one another
- D. They spoke in riddles

Answer: C

Explanation: The wise men gave varied and conflicting answers, which left the king unconvinced.

Q4. Why did some people suggest that the king should go to magicians?

- A. To learn magic
- B. To predict enemies
- C. To look into the future
- D. To find hidden treasure

Answer: C

Explanation: They believed only magicians could foresee the future to decide the right time for action.

Q5. Why did the king go to meet the hermit alone?

- A. The hermit allowed no visitors
- B. The hermit lived far away
- C. The hermit met only simple people
- D. The king wanted secrecy

Answer: C

Explanation: The hermit never met kings and spoke only to simple people, so the king wore ordinary clothes.

Q6. What work was the hermit doing when the king met him?

- A. Praying
- B. Reading scriptures
- C. Digging the ground
- D. Planting trees

Answer: C

Explanation: The hermit was digging beds in front of his hut when the king arrived.

Q7. Why did the bearded man collapse near the hermit's hut?

- A. He was exhausted
- B. He was starving
- C. He was wounded and bleeding
- D. He was attacked by animals

Answer: C

Explanation: The man had a serious wound in his stomach and fainted due to blood loss.

Q8. Who was the wounded bearded man actually?

- A. A messenger
- B. A thief
- C. The king's enemy
- D. A soldier

Answer: C

Explanation: The man confessed that he was the king's enemy who had planned to kill him.

Q9. According to the hermit, which is the most important time?

- A. Tomorrow
- B. When planning begins
- C. The present moment
- D. When advice is given

Answer: C

Explanation: The hermit said the most important time is 'Now' because it is the only time we can act.

Q10. What did the hermit say was the most important business?

- A. Winning wars
- B. Gaining knowledge
- C. Doing good to the person with you
- D. Serving the king

Answer: C

Explanation: The hermit explained that helping the person present with you is the most important duty.