

CHAPTER-4 | In the Kingdom of Fools

QUIZ
PART-04

1. What were the two strange things the guru and his disciple found in the kingdom?
 A. People worked in the day and food was expensive
 B. People worked at night and everything cost the same
 C. People never worked and food was free
 D. People stayed indoors and food was scarce (B)

Explanation: The guru and his disciple observed that people worked at night, slept during the day, and every item cost the same.

2. Why did the disciple decide to stay in the kingdom?
 A. He liked the people there
 B. He was tempted by the cheap food
 C. He wanted to become rich
 D. He feared punishment if he left (B)

Explanation: The disciple had a peculiarity of diet and was tempted by the cheap, plentiful food, so he chose to stay.

3. Why was it not a good idea for the disciple to stay in the kingdom?
 A. He disliked the food
 B. The king did not like strangers
 C. The behaviour of fools was unpredictable and dangerous
 D. He had to work at night (C)

Explanation: The guru warned that the foolishness of the people could lead to unpredictable dangers at any time.

4. Who were all the people tried in the king's court?
 A. The king and minister
 B. The merchant, bricklayer, dancing girl, and goldsmith
 C. The guru and disciple
 D. The thief's family (B)

Explanation: The merchant, bricklayer, dancing girl, and goldsmith were all tried for their indirect roles in the thief's death.

5. Why was the merchant declared the real culprit?
 A. He had killed the thief directly
 B. He had inherited both wealth and sins from his father
 C. He refused to repair his house
 D. He bribed the bricklayer (B)

Explanation: The king declared the merchant guilty because he inherited both wealth and sins from his father.

6. Why did the merchant escape punishment?
 A. He paid a bribe to the king
 B. He was too thin to be executed on the stake
 C. The king pardoned him out of kindness
 D. The bricklayer confessed his guilt (B)

Explanation: The merchant was spared because he was too thin to fit the stake meant for execution.

7. What words of wisdom did the guru give his disciple?
 A. "Fools are dangerous; their behaviour is unpredictable."
 B. "Stay and enjoy the cheap food."
 C. "Do not trust anyone in the kingdom."
 D. "Every king is kind and merciful." (A)

Explanation: The guru wisely warned that fools are unpredictable and can endanger lives at any time.

8. When did the disciple remember the guru's advice?
 A. While eating food in the kingdom
 B. When he was arrested for fitting the stake
 C. When he became fat from overeating
 D. When he saw the dancing girl (B)

Explanation: The disciple recalled the guru's advice when he was arrested simply because he was fat enough to fit the stake.

9. How did the guru manage to save his disciple's life?
 A. He begged the king for mercy
 B. He created a drama, saying the stake would make the first victim a king in the next life
 C. He fought against the king
 D. He bribed the minister (B)

Explanation: The guru cleverly tricked the king by claiming the stake had divine power, making the king eager to die first.

10. What was the result of the guru's clever plan?
 A. The guru was executed
 B. The disciple escaped but the guru died
 C. The king and his minister got themselves executed, and the guru saved his disciple
 D. The goldsmith was executed instead (C)

Explanation: The king and minister, fooled by the guru's words, executed themselves, and the guru successfully saved his disciple.
