

CHAPTER-3 | Iswaran the Storyteller

QUIZ-01

1. What was Mahendra's profession?

- A. Engineer
B. Junior supervisor
C. Factory manager
D. Storyteller (B)

Explanation: Mahendra worked as a junior supervisor in a firm that provided supervisors for construction sites, as described in the chapter.

2. What made Iswaran a unique cook?

- A. His ability to prepare exotic dishes
B. His talent for storytelling
C. His capacity to produce vegetables and ingredients out of nowhere
D. His quick service (C)

Explanation: Iswaran was known for miraculously producing fresh vegetables and ingredients in remote locations without any visible shops.

3. How did Iswaran enhance his storytelling?

- A. By using suspense and dramatic gestures
B. By reading scripts aloud
C. By creating visual aids
D. By singing songs (A)

Explanation: Iswaran's stories often included suspense, dramatic gestures, and surprise endings, which captivated Mahendra.

4. Which genre of books influenced Iswaran's storytelling?

- A. Historical fiction
B. Tamil thrillers
C. Science fiction
D. Mythological tales (B)

Explanation: Iswaran was influenced by popular Tamil thrillers, which were rich in imaginative descriptions and narrative flourishes.

5. How did Iswaran claim to subdue the rampaging elephant?

- A. By using a tranquilizer
B. By chanting prayers
C. By hitting its toenail using a technique similar to karate
D. By luring it with food (C)

Explanation: Iswaran claimed he used a Japanese martial art technique to paralyze the elephant temporarily.

6. What did Mahendra observe on a full-moon night after Iswaran's ghost story?

- A. A human figure outside his window
B. A cat prowling for food
C. A dark cloudy form clutching a bundle
D. Nothing unusual (C)

Explanation: Mahendra witnessed what appeared to be a ghostly figure, aligning with Iswaran's eerie story.

7. What event triggered Mahendra's decision to leave the haunted place?

- A. Hearing Iswaran's ghost story
B. Seeing a ghostly figure near his window
C. Experiencing recurring nightmares
D. A mishap at work (B)

Explanation: Mahendra's encounter with the supposed ghost convinced him to leave the place immediately.

8. Why did Mahendra enjoy Iswaran's stories despite their implausibility?

- A. They reminded him of his childhood
B. Iswaran's style made them entertaining
C. Mahendra believed in supernatural tales
D. He had no other source of entertainment (B)

Explanation: Mahendra was captivated by Iswaran's storytelling style, filled with drama and suspense.

9. What did Iswaran attribute the factory area's eerie atmosphere to?

- A. Its history as a burial ground
B. Its remote location
C. Its strange architecture
D. The workers' superstitions (A)

Explanation: Iswaran mentioned that the factory area was once a burial ground, adding to the supernatural theme.

10. What moral or theme can be inferred from the story?

- A. The power of imagination
B. The importance of logic
C. The impact of loneliness
D. The dangers of superstition (A)

Explanation: The story highlights how imagination, storytelling, and belief in the supernatural can influence human perception and behavior.