

CHAPTER-5 | The Happy Prince

QUIZ-01

1. Why is the statue of the Happy Prince covered in gold and adorned with jewels?
- To symbolize his wealth during his life
 - To make him look impressive and admired by all
 - To show his compassion for the poor
 - To represent his authority as a prince (B)

Explanation: The statue was covered in gold and adorned with jewels to make it beautiful and admired, reflecting the Happy Prince's splendor from his life as a prince.

2. Why does the Happy Prince weep?
- He is lonely and misses his life as a prince
 - He cannot move and help the people of his city
 - The Swallow refuses to help him
 - His heart is made of lead and feels no emotion (B)

Explanation: The Happy Prince weeps because he sees the suffering and misery of his people and is unable to help them directly as a statue.

3. What does the Swallow do for the seamstress and her child?
- Gives them food and shelter
 - Brings them the ruby from the Happy Prince's sword
 - Takes them to the palace for help
 - Sings songs to soothe the child (B)

Explanation: The Swallow delivers the ruby from the Happy Prince's sword to the seamstress, providing relief for her and her sick child.

4. Why does the Happy Prince give away his sapphire eyes?
- To help a playwright buy firewood and finish his play
 - To make himself less attractive to the townspeople
 - To save the seamstress and her child
 - To reward the Swallow for his loyalty (A)

Explanation: The Happy Prince gives one sapphire to a playwright struggling with hunger and cold, enabling him to buy firewood and finish his work.

5. Why does the Swallow decide to stay with the Happy Prince instead of migrating to Egypt?
- He is injured and cannot fly
 - He is moved by the Happy Prince's kindness and wishes to help
 - He dislikes Egypt and prefers the city
 - He is waiting for the winter to end (B)

Explanation: The Swallow stays because he is touched by the Happy Prince's compassion and selflessness, choosing to assist him in helping the poor.

6. What does the Happy Prince ask the Swallow to do with the gold leaf covering?
- Distribute it among the rich for charity
 - Use it to make the statue more appealing
 - Give it leaf by leaf to the poor
 - Build a golden nest for the Swallow (C)

Explanation: The Happy Prince instructs the Swallow to distribute the gold leaf among the poor to alleviate their suffering.

7. What happens to the Swallow at the end of the story?
- He migrates to Egypt to join his friends
 - He dies from the cold while helping the Happy Prince
 - He is taken care of by the townspeople
 - He becomes a statue alongside the Happy Prince (B)

Explanation: The Swallow dies of cold after staying with the Happy Prince through the harsh winter, dedicated to helping the needy.

8. What ultimately happens to the statue of the Happy Prince?
- It is repaired and restored by the townspeople
 - It is melted down as it is no longer beautiful
 - It is moved to a museum to honor its value
 - It remains in the square as a symbol of kindness (B)

Explanation: The townspeople dismantle and melt the statue, dismissing it as useless since it is no longer adorned with gold or jewels.

9. What are the "two most precious things" in the story according to God?
- The Happy Prince's ruby and sapphires
 - The Swallow and the leaden heart of the Happy Prince
 - The people saved by the Happy Prince and the Swallow
 - The statue of the Happy Prince and the Mayor (B)

Explanation: God regards the Swallow and the leaden heart of the Happy Prince as the most precious things for their selflessness and love.

10. What theme is central to the story of "The Happy Prince"?
- The importance of wealth and power
 - The superficiality of material beauty
 - The value of selflessness and compassion
 - The inevitability of suffering (C)

Explanation: The story emphasizes selflessness and compassion as the Happy Prince and the Swallow sacrifice themselves to alleviate the suffering of others.