

Poem-2 | Wind

QUIZ-01

1. What does the wind do to the shutters of windows in the first stanza?
- A. Breaks them
B. Opens them gently
C. Polishes them
D. Closes them (A)

Explanation: The poem begins by describing how the wind forcefully breaks the shutters, emphasizing its destructive power.

2. How does the wind treat weak structures like frail houses and rafters?
- A. Protects them
B. Crumbles them
C. Repairs them
D. Strengthens them (B)

Explanation: The poet illustrates the wind's destructive force by showing how it causes weak structures to crumble.

3. What should humans do to make friends with the wind, according to the poem?
- A. Avoid it
B. Strengthen their bodies and minds
C. Fight against it
D. Worship it (B)

Explanation: The poet suggests that humans should build strength and resilience to align with the wind, symbolizing challenges.

4. What metaphor does the poet use for the wind's treatment of weak fires?
- A. Fanning them
B. Blowing them out
C. Igniting them further
D. Transforming them into flames (B)

Explanation: Weak fires are extinguished by the wind, symbolizing how fragility succumbs to adversity.

5. What does the wind do to strong fires, as per the poem?
- A. Extinguishes them
B. Makes them roar and flourish
C. Calms them down
D. Scatters them (B)

Explanation: The poet highlights the positive aspect of the wind by showing how it amplifies strength.

6. How does the poet describe the wind's attitude toward weaklings?

- A. Sympathetic
B. Playful
C. Mocking
D. Encouraging (C)

Explanation: The wind is personified as mocking weaklings, showcasing its indifference and strength against fragility.

7. What is the poet's tone in addressing the wind?

- A. Angry
B. Humorous
C. Resigned
D. Inspirational (D)

Explanation: The poet uses an inspirational tone, encouraging strength and resilience to face challenges like the wind.

8. What does the poet advise about building homes to withstand the wind?

- A. Build homes underground
B. Strengthen doors and structures
C. Avoid building homes altogether
D. Use lighter materials (B)

Explanation: The poet advises fortifying homes to resist the wind's force, symbolizing preparation for challenges.

9. What does the wind symbolize in the poem?

- A. Nature's fury
B. Life's challenges
C. Fragility of humans
D. Power of destruction (B)

Explanation: The wind represents life's difficulties and tests of strength, encouraging resilience and determination.

10. How does the poet view the wind's friendship?

- A. It's destructive
B. It benefits the strong
C. It's elusive
D. It's harmful to all (B)

Explanation: The poet portrays the wind as a friend to the strong, rewarding resilience and reinforcing strength.