

CHAPTER-7 | The Last Leaf

QUIZ-01

1. Why does Johnsy believe she will die?

- A. She has lost hope in medicine
- B. She thinks she is cursed
- C. She believes she will die when the last ivy leaf falls
- D. She trusts the doctor's judgment (C)

Explanation: Johnsy connects her fate to the falling ivy leaves and is convinced her life will end with the last leaf. This reflects her lack of will to live.

2. What does the doctor suggest is critical for Johnsy's recovery?

- A. New medicines
- B. A change in climate
- C. Her will to live
- D. A better diet (C)

Explanation: The doctor emphasizes that without Johnsy's desire to live, no medicine can help her. Mental strength plays a key role in recovery.

3. What does Sue do to uplift Johnsy's spirits?

- A. Brings her new clothes
- B. Talks about fashion and paints in her room
- C. Takes her on a trip
- D. Calls a priest (B)

Explanation: Sue attempts to engage Johnsy by painting and discussing lighthearted topics, showing her dedication as a friend.

4. What is Behrman's lifelong dream?

- A. To be famous
- B. To paint a masterpiece
- C. To travel the world
- D. To own a gallery (B)

Explanation: Behrman's aspiration to create a masterpiece becomes meaningful when he sacrifices his health to paint the last leaf for Johnsy.

5. Why does Johnsy change her mind about dying?

- A. She is inspired by Sue's efforts
- B. The leaf on the creeper survives a storm
- C. The doctor motivates her
- D. She dreams of her recovery (B)

Explanation: The last leaf becomes a symbol of resilience for Johnsy, inspiring her to regain the will to live.

6. How does Behrman's painting save Johnsy's life?

- A. It restores her hope
- B. It convinces the doctor to try harder
- C. It makes Sue happy
- D. It cures her illness (A)

Explanation: Behrman's painted leaf gives Johnsy the strength to believe in survival, demonstrating the power of hope.

7. What ultimate sacrifice does Behrman make?

- A. He loses his job
- B. He paints the masterpiece in a storm and dies of pneumonia
- C. He gives his art supplies to Sue
- D. He sells his house for Johnsy's treatment (B)

Explanation: Behrman risks his life to paint the leaf, ensuring Johnsy's recovery while sacrificing his own health.

8. What is the significance of the last leaf in the story?

- A. It represents Behrman's legacy
- B. It symbolizes unyielding hope and resilience
- C. It shows the power of nature
- D. It proves the doctor's diagnosis wrong (B)

Explanation: The painted leaf becomes a metaphor for life's determination to persist despite challenges.

9. How does Sue react when Johnsy wants to look at the last leaf?

- A. She supports her curiosity
- B. She tries to distract her
- C. She scolds her for being morbid
- D. She leaves her alone (B)

Explanation: Sue encourages Johnsy to stay positive and avoid focusing on the leaf's fall, showing her care and concern.

10. What lesson does Johnsy learn by the end of the story?

- A. It's okay to give up sometimes
- B. Life is precious, and it's wrong to wish for death
- C. Doctors know best
- D. Friends are better than family (B)

Explanation: Johnsy realizes that wanting to die is a sin and learns to appreciate life, inspired by Sue's care and Behrman's sacrifice.