

CHAPTER-5 | Footprints Without Feet

QUIZ
PART-03

1. What did Mrs. Hall believe was the cause of the strange movements of furniture in Griffin's room?
- Griffin's experiments
  - Witchcraft and spirits
  - A mischievous prank
  - Earthquake tremors

(B)

Explanation: Mrs. Hall thought spirits had entered her furniture and believed the room was haunted.

2. What event made the villagers strongly suspect Griffin?
- His odd looks and solitary nature
  - His sudden possession of ready cash+
  - His quarrel with Mrs. Hall
  - His mysterious disappearance

(B)

Explanation: Villagers grew suspicious when Griffin, who earlier claimed to have no money, suddenly produced cash after a burglary.

3. How did Mrs. Hall confront Griffin about his behavior?
- By calling the police directly
  - By demanding an explanation about the chair and his entry from a locked room
  - By asking him to leave the inn
  - By accusing him of theft openly

(B)

Explanation: Mrs. Hall asked him about the moving chair and how he could come out of an empty, locked room.

4. How did Griffin react when Mrs. Hall questioned him?
- He calmly explained his experiment
  - He shouted angrily and decided to reveal himself
  - He ran away without answering
  - He laughed and ignored her

(B)

Explanation: Griffin became furious, shouted that she didn't understand him, and decided to show his true form.

5. How did Griffin reveal his invisibility to the villagers?
- By removing his disguise of bandages, spectacles, and whiskers
  - By suddenly vanishing in thin air
  - By drinking a potion
  - By running into the forest

(A)

Explanation: Griffin threw off his bandages, spectacles, whiskers, and false nose, exposing himself as headless.

6. Who was sent to arrest Griffin?
- Mrs. Hall's husband
  - The magistrate
  - Mr. Jaffers, the constable
  - The clergyman

(C)

Explanation: Mr. Jaffers, the constable, was called to arrest Griffin despite his strange appearance.

7. What difficulty did Jaffers face while arresting Griffin?
- Griffin threatened him with weapons
  - Griffin was turning invisible as he removed his clothes
  - Griffin's supporters attacked Jaffers
  - The villagers did not help him

(B)

Explanation: As Griffin shed his clothes, Jaffers struggled with someone who was gradually becoming invisible.

8. How did the villagers react during the arrest attempt?
- They helped Griffin escape
  - They tried to help Jaffers but were hit by invisible blows
  - They locked Griffin inside the inn
  - They ran away in fear

(B)

Explanation: Some villagers tried to help, but they were struck by blows that seemed to come from nowhere.

9. What happened to Constable Jaffers in the end?
- He successfully arrested Griffin
  - He was knocked unconscious during the struggle
  - He called for more policemen
  - He escaped unharmed

(B)

Explanation: Jaffers made a final attempt to hold Griffin but was knocked unconscious.

10. What is the key learning outcome from this part of the story?
- Anger and violence often arise from isolation and misuse of power
  - Villagers should never interfere in science
  - Police cannot deal with supernatural powers
  - Griffin was right to seek revenge

(A)

Explanation: The section highlights that Griffin's isolation and misuse of scientific discovery led to anger, violence, and eventual chaos.