

CHAPTER-2 | Dust of Snow

QUIZ PART-02

1. What does "dust of snow" mean in the poem?
- Ashes from fire
 - Particles of snow
 - Drops of rain
 - Thick fog

(B)

Explanation: "Dust of snow" means small particles or flakes of snow.

2. What changed the poet's mood?
- A bright flower
 - The sound of wind
 - The falling dust of snow
 - A singing bird

(C)

Explanation: The poet says that the dust of snow falling on him changed his mood.

3. What was the poet's mood at first?
- Happy
 - Sad
 - Angry
 - Excited

(B)

Explanation: The PDF explains that the poet first felt sad before the incident changed him.

4. Which birds are usually named in poems, according to the PDF?
- Crow, eagle, owl
 - Cuckoo, mynah, peacock, parrot
 - Sparrow, crow, kite
 - Vulture, crow, raven

(B)

Explanation: The PDF mentions cuckoo, mynah, peacock, and parrot as birds commonly named in poems.

5. A crow is rarely mentioned in poems because it is often linked with:
- Joy
 - Beauty
 - Sadness or bad happenings
 - Spring season

(C)

Explanation: The PDF says that a crow is looked at ominously and brings images of sadness or something bad.

6. What is a hemlock tree?
- A fruit tree
 - A flowering tree with red flowers
 - A poisonous plant
 - A dry desert plant

(C)

Explanation: The PDF clearly explains that a hemlock tree is a poisonous plant.

7. Why does the poet use a hemlock tree instead of a more beautiful tree?
- To show wealth
 - To match the sad and ominous mood
 - To describe spring
 - To praise gardening

(B)

Explanation: The hemlock tree suits the ominous crow and the poet's sad state of mind.

8. In the poem, the crow and the hemlock tree represent:
- Joy and hope
 - Peace and harmony
 - Sorrow and evil
 - Success and pride

(C)

Explanation: The PDF states that both the crow and the hemlock tree represent sorrow and evil.

9. What does the dust of snow stand for?
- Fear
 - Natural beauty or something joyful
 - Death
 - Anger

(B)

Explanation: The dust of snow symbolizes natural beauty and a joyful change in the poet's mood.

10. What is the main message of "Dust of Snow"?
- Only big events matter in life
 - Nature is always frightening
 - Small things can bring big positive changes
 - Sadness cannot be changed

(C)

Explanation: The poem teaches that small moments in nature can create great positive changes in life.