

CHAPTER-6 | This is Jody's Fawn

QUIZ-01

1. Why did Jody want to bring the fawn home?
 - A. He wanted a pet.
 - B. He pitied the orphaned fawn.
 - C. He believed it was his responsibility since the doe was killed to save his father.
 - D. His father asked him to do so. (C)

Explanation: Jody felt morally responsible for the fawn because its mother was killed to save his father's life from the snakebite. He believed it was his duty to look after the fawn.

2. What was Jody's mother's first reaction to his request?
 - A. She happily agreed.
 - B. She was indifferent.
 - C. She opposed the idea.
 - D. She warned him about the dangers. (C)

Explanation: Initially, Jody's mother opposed the idea of bringing the fawn home. She was unsure about it but eventually gave her consent.

3. Who accompanied Jody to search for the fawn?
 - A. His father
 - B. Mill-wheel
 - C. Doc Wilson
 - D. His mother (B)

Explanation: Mill-wheel accompanied Jody to help him find the orphaned fawn in the forest.

4. What emotions did Jody experience while searching for the fawn?
 - A. Excitement and confidence
 - B. Fear and uncertainty
 - C. Joy and pride
 - D. Anger and frustration (B)

Explanation: Jody felt uncertain and nervous during his search in the forest, especially when he was alone and unsure if the fawn would still be there.

5. How did Jody finally find the fawn?
 - A. It came running to him.
 - B. He followed its footprints.
 - C. He retraced the path to where the doe had been killed.
 - D. Mill-wheel spotted it. (C)

Explanation: Jody returned to the spot where the doe was killed, and he found the fawn lying in the same area.

6. How did the fawn respond to Jody when it saw him?
 - A. It ran away.
 - B. It was frightened and aggressive.
 - C. It seemed to trust him and followed him.
 - D. It was too weak to move. (C)

Explanation: The fawn was initially hesitant but soon trusted Jody and began to follow him, sensing no threat.

7. What physical action did Jody take to carry the fawn back home?
 - A. He tied it to a rope.
 - B. He lifted it on his shoulders.
 - C. He made it walk behind him.
 - D. He built a cart for it. (B)

Explanation: Jody lifted the fawn onto his shoulders when it became too tired to walk further.

8. How did Jody feel when the fawn accepted him?
 - A. He felt burdened.
 - B. He was indifferent.
 - C. He was proud and relieved.
 - D. He felt superior. (C)

Explanation: Jody felt a deep sense of connection, pride, and relief when the fawn began to trust and follow him.

9. What theme does the story primarily explore?
 - A. Adventure in the forest
 - B. Superstition and myths
 - C. Responsibility, empathy, and coexistence
 - D. Survival of the fittest (C)

Explanation: The story emphasizes Jody's empathy and sense of responsibility toward the orphaned fawn, portraying a deep human-animal bond and moral accountability.

10. What does Jody's decision to care for the fawn reveal about his character?
 - A. He is selfish and reckless.
 - B. He is kind, responsible, and compassionate.
 - C. He is immature and emotional.
 - D. He is obedient but weak. (B)

Explanation: Jody's actions highlight his maturity, kindness, and compassion, showing how deeply he understands responsibility and care.