

CHAPTER-1 | A Letter to God

QUIZ
PART-02

1. In the solitary house, what was the single hope of the family?
A. Help from neighbours
B. Help from God
C. Help from the government
D. Help from relatives (B)

Explanation: The family living in the lonely house had only one hope, and that was help from God.

2. What did Lencho think about all through the night?
A. Buying a new field
B. Leaving the village
C. The help of God
D. Selling his house (C)

Explanation: After the destruction of the crop, Lencho thought only about God's help.

3. "Lencho was an ox of a man" suggests that he was:
A. Cruel and rude
B. Strong and hardworking
C. Rich and proud
D. Lazy and careless (B)

Explanation: The phrase shows that Lencho was physically strong, industrious, and worked very hard in the fields.

4. What did Lencho do on the following Sunday at daybreak?
A. He went to the market
B. He started writing a letter to God
C. He sold his oxen
D. He called the villagers for help (B)

Explanation: Early on Sunday morning, Lencho began writing a letter addressed to God.

5. How much money did Lencho ask for in his first letter?
A. Fifty pesos
B. Seventy pesos
C. Hundred pesos
D. Two hundred pesos (C)

Explanation: Lencho requested one hundred pesos so that he could sow his field again and support his family.

6. Why did Lencho need the money?
A. To buy a new house
B. To sow his field again and live until the next crop
C. To purchase cattle
D. To pay his debts in town (B)

Explanation: Lencho needed money to replant his field and survive until the next harvest came.

7. How did the postman react when he saw the letter addressed to God?
A. He became angry
B. He ignored it completely
C. He laughed heartily
D. He returned it at once (C)

Explanation: The postman found the address unusual and laughed when he saw a letter written to God.

8. What kind of person was the postmaster?
A. Strict and unfriendly
B. Fat and amiable
C. Poor and helpless
D. Proud and dishonest (B)

Explanation: The postmaster is described as a fat, friendly, and kind-hearted man.

9. Why did the postmaster decide to answer Lencho's letter?
A. He wanted to test Lencho
B. He did not want to shake Lencho's faith in God
C. He wanted to make fun of Lencho
D. He was ordered by the government (B)

Explanation: The postmaster was deeply moved by Lencho's faith and decided to reply so that his faith would remain unbroken.

10. Why could the postmaster not send Lencho the full hundred pesos?
A. He forgot the amount
B. He did not believe Lencho
C. He could gather only a little more than half the amount
D. Lencho refused to accept more money (C)

Explanation: Even after collecting money from employees, friends, and his own salary, the postmaster could not arrange the full hundred pesos.