  - A lawyer (B)

Explanation: Chubukov enters when he hears the loud quarrel between Natalya and Lomov.

2. What does Chubukov say about Oxen Meadows?
- They belong to Lomov
  - They belong to the peasants
  - They are theirs
  - They should be sold (C)

Explanation: Chubukov firmly supports Natalya and says that the Meadows belong to their family.

3. According to Chubukov, why did the peasants not pay Lomov's family?
- They were poor
  - The Meadows were in dispute
  - They forgot to pay
  - They had left the village (B)

Explanation: Chubukov argues that no payment was made because the ownership of the Meadows had always been disputed.

4. What does Lomov call Chubukov during the argument?
- A hero
  - A grabber
  - A judge
  - A coward (B)

Explanation: In anger, Lomov says that Chubukov is not a good neighbour but a grabber.

5. What does Natalya ask her father to do at once?
- Call a doctor
  - Write a letter
  - Send the mowers to the Meadows
  - Bring the documents (C)

Explanation: Natalya tells her father to send the mowers to the Meadows immediately to assert their claim.

6. What does Lomov threaten to do?
- Leave the village
  - Take the matter to court
  - Stop speaking forever
  - Sell his land (B)

Explanation: Lomov says he will take the dispute to court to prove his ownership.

7. What insulting word does Chubukov use for Lomov in the quarrel?
- Pettifogger
  - Teacher
  - Merchant
  - Farmer (A)

Explanation: Chubukov angrily calls Lomov a "pettifogger," meaning a petty advocate.

8. What physical trouble does Lomov feel during the quarrel?
- Fever
  - Toothache
  - Pain in his side and heart trouble
  - Hunger (C)

Explanation: Lomov complains of pain in his side, heart trouble, numbness, and weakness during the heated argument.

9. What does Chubukov tell Lomov after he begins to leave?
- Come back tomorrow
  - Take some water
  - Don't set foot in my house again
  - Bring the court papers (C)

Explanation: Chubukov, still furious, tells Lomov not to enter his house again.

10. What shocking fact does Natalya learn at the end?
- The Meadows are lost
  - Lomov was there to propose to her
  - Her father hid the documents
  - Lomov wanted money (B)

Explanation: At the end of the passage, Natalya is shocked to learn that Lomov had actually come to propose marriage to her.
