

CHAPTER-10 | For Anne Gregory

QUIZ
PART-01

1. Who is the poet of the poem "For Anne Gregory"?
- Carl Sandburg
 - William Butler Yeats
 - Carolyn Wells
 - Walt Whitman

(B)

Explanation: The poem "For Anne Gregory" was written by William Butler Yeats, an Irish poet who won the Nobel Prize in 1923.

2. What is the main theme of the poem "For Anne Gregory"?
- Courage and Determination
 - Beauty and Its Transient Nature
 - Love and Friendship
 - Dreams and Aspirations

(B)

Explanation: The poem explores the fleeting nature of physical beauty and the importance of inner qualities.

3. Who is Anne Gregory talking to in the poem?
- A young man
 - A priest
 - An old woman
 - The poet himself

(A)

Explanation: The poem is a conversation between a young man and a young woman, Anne Gregory, discussing the idea of love and beauty.

4. What feature of Anne Gregory does the young man admire?
- Her eyes
 - Her smile
 - Her yellow hair
 - Her kindness

(C)

Explanation: The young man is captivated by Anne Gregory's "honey-coloured" or yellow hair, symbolizing outer beauty.

5. What does Anne Gregory say she can do to test true love?
- Cut her hair short
 - Change the colour of her hair
 - Hide her face
 - Leave her home

(B)

Explanation: Anne Gregory says she can dye her hair brown, black, or carrot-coloured to see if men love her for herself and not just her looks.

6. Who does the poet mention as the one capable of loving us for who we truly are?

- A young man
- A religious leader
- God
- No one

(C)

Explanation: The poet conveys that only God can love a person for who they truly are, beyond physical appearance.

7. What literary device is used in the phrase "honey-coloured ramparts at your ear"?
- Oxymoron
 - Metaphor
 - Assonance
 - Simile

(B)

Explanation: The phrase is a metaphor comparing Anne Gregory's golden hair to ramparts, emphasizing its beauty and allure.

8. What emotion does the young man feel because of Anne Gregory's beauty?
- Joy
 - Despair
 - Pride
 - Fear

(B)

Explanation: The young man feels despair because he believes no one could love Anne Gregory for her true self and not just her external beauty.

9. What lesson about love does the poem convey?
- True love depends on physical beauty.
 - People should value outer beauty more.
 - Real love looks beyond appearances.
 - Changing looks can change love.

(C)

Explanation: The poem teaches that genuine love is based on inner qualities and not on outward appearance.

10. Who had declared that only God could love a person for who they are?
- A philosopher
 - A young poet
 - An old religious man
 - A king

(C)

Explanation: The poet recalls hearing an old religious man say that only God is capable of loving someone for their true self and not their looks.