- Alliteration
 - Oxymoron
 - Personification
 - Enjambment (A)

Explanation: The repeated s sound in "Stop," "slouching," "sit," and "straight" makes it an example of alliteration.

3. Which word is repeatedly used in the poem to address the girl?
- Mermaid
 - Rapunzel
 - Amanda
 - Orphan (C)

Explanation: The repeated use of "Amanda" is listed in the PDF as an example of repetition.

4. "Emerald sea" is an example of:
- Metaphor
 - Simile
 - Personification
 - Allusion (A)

Explanation: "Emerald sea" is a metaphor, comparing the green sea to an emerald.

5. "Silence is golden" is a:
- Repetition
 - Metaphor
 - Hyperbole
 - Irony (B)

Explanation: The phrase compares silence to something precious like gold, so it is a metaphor.

6. Which poetic device is used in the words "Mermaid" and "Rapunzel"?
- Alliteration
 - Symbolism
 - Allusion
 - Assonance (C)

Explanation: These are indirect references to known characters, so they are examples of allusion.

7. According to the PDF, every child needs:
- Strict punishment
 - More homework
 - Personal space
 - Less freedom (C)

Explanation: The theme section says that every child needs their own space and that parents should not cross the boundary of the child's privacy.

8. According to the poem's theme, children should understand their parents'
- anger only
 - concern and care
 - strict rules only
 - wealth and status (B)

Explanation: The PDF states that children should understand the concern and care of their parents.

9. What makes any relationship stronger, according to the PDF?
- Silence
 - Distance
 - Communication and mutual understanding
 - Control (C)

Explanation: The theme section says every relationship needs communication, and better understanding makes the bond stronger.

10. "Hushed, bare feet" is an example of:
- Transferred epithet
 - Simile
 - Metonymy
 - Onomatopoeia (A)

Explanation: The PDF explains that "hushed, bare feet" is a transferred epithet because the silence really describes Amanda's movement, not the feet themselves.
