

1. Which two birds are talking in the poem "Bird Talk"?

- A. Sparrow and crow
- B. Robin and jay
- C. Peacock and parrot
- D. Crow and pigeon

Answer: B

Explanation: The poem clearly mentions robin and jay as the two birds talking.

2. Where are the robin and the jay sitting while talking?

- A. On a tree branch
- B. On electric wires
- C. In the garden
- D. Near a river

Answer: C

Explanation: The poem states that they are sitting in the garden.

3. What are the birds thinking about in the poem?

- A. Other birds
- B. Trees
- C. Insects
- D. People

Answer: D

Explanation: The birds are thinking and talking about people.

4. What do people not have, as mentioned by the birds?

- A. Wings
- B. Beaks
- C. Feathers
- D. Tails

Answer: C

Explanation: The poem says that people do not have feathers at all.

5. Which food do people NOT eat, according to the poem?

- A. Fruits
- B. Seeds
- C. Beetles
- D. Rice

Answer: C

Explanation: The poem clearly says that people do not eat beetles.

6. What do people NOT grow, as compared to birds?

- A. Feathers
- B. Beaks
- C. Wings
- D. Legs

Answer: C

Explanation: The birds say that people do not grow wings.

7. Where do birds like sitting, but people do not?

- A. On chairs
- B. On wires and things
- C. On roads
- D. On tables

Answer: B

Explanation: The poem mentions that birds like sitting on wires and things.

8. How do robin and jay describe people at the end of the poem?

- A. Clever
- B. Kind
- C. Funny
- D. Lazy

Answer: C

Explanation: The birds find people funny because of their differences from birds.

9. Who is the poet of "Bird Talk"?

- A. Mousumi Gupta
- B. A. A. Milne
- C. Ruskin Bond
- D. Aileen Fisher

Answer: D

Explanation: The poem is written by Aileen Fisher.

10. What is the main idea of the poem?

- A. Birds are better than people
- B. People and birds live together
- C. Birds compare people with themselves in a playful way
- D. People can fly like birds

Answer: C

Explanation: The poem humorously shows how birds compare people with themselves.

