

CHAPTER-9 | The Book That Saved the Earth

QUIZ
PART-03

1. What did Think-Tank order the crew to do with the books after listening failed?
A. Burn them
B. Open and watch them
C. Tear them apart
D. Taste them again (B)

Explanation: Noodle reminded Think-Tank that Earthlings opened books to watch them, not to listen, so Think-Tank ordered the crew to observe them.

2. What large, colourful book did Captain Omega pick up?
A. A dictionary
B. An atlas
C. Mother Goose
D. A novel (C)

Explanation: Omega picked up a large volume of Mother Goose, which the crew thought contained important codes.

3. How did the Martians describe the writing inside the book?
A. Strange lines, dots, and squiggles
B. Pictures of animals
C. Mathematical formulas
D. Maps of the Earth (A)

Explanation: They saw little lines, dots, and squiggles alongside pictures, which they thought was some sort of code.

4. What did Think-Tank conclude after hearing about the code?
A. Earthlings were more primitive than expected
B. Earthlings might not be as primitive as thought
C. Earthlings had no intelligence
D. Earthlings communicated only through pictures (B)

Explanation: Think-Tank was alarmed and thought the code showed Earthlings might be more advanced than he believed.

5. What did the Martian crew take to help them understand the code?
A. Pills for strength
B. Vitamins to increase intelligence
C. A communication device
D. A Martian dictionary (B)

Explanation: They swallowed vitamins from their belts, which the chemical department had given them to boost intelligence.

6. Which nursery rhyme did Omega first read aloud?
A. Jack and Jill
B. Humpty Dumpty
C. Mistress Mary, Quite Contrary
D. Baa Baa Black Sheep (C)

Explanation: Omega read the rhyme "Mistress Mary, Quite Contrary, How does your garden grow?..." from Mother Goose.

7. How did Oop react to the rhyme?
A. He was confused
B. He found it amusing and laughed
C. He grew frightened
D. He ignored it (B)

Explanation: Oop burst into laughter, amused at the idea of "maids growing in a garden".

8. How did Think-Tank interpret the rhyme?
A. As a joke
B. As a dangerous discovery about Earthlings combining agriculture and mining
C. As a fairy tale
D. As evidence of Earthlings' weakness (B)

Explanation: Think-Tank was alarmed and concluded Earthlings had discovered how to combine agriculture with mining.

9. What does the scene mainly highlight about Think-Tank?
A. His bravery
B. His ignorance and tendency to misinterpret
C. His kindness to his crew
D. His interest in Earth's culture (B)

Explanation: The episode shows Think-Tank's arrogance and foolish misinterpretations, making him appear ignorant.

10. What is the key learning outcome from this part?
A. Books are dangerous weapons
B. Half-knowledge and arrogance can lead to dangerous conclusions
C. Nursery rhymes are meaningless
D. Martians were more intelligent than humans (B)

Explanation: The part teaches that misinterpretation and half-knowledge, combined with arrogance, can be dangerous.