

CHAPTER-1 | The Lost Child

QUIZ-01

1. Why did the child lag behind his parents while on the way to the fair?
- A. He was scared of the crowd.
 - B. He was fascinated by the toys and surroundings.
 - C. He was tired from walking.
 - D. He was playing with his friends. (B)

Explanation: The child was enchanted by the sights of toys, dragonflies, and the mustard fields, which made him pause and fall behind his parents.

2. What was the child's reaction when he saw the sweetmeat seller?
- A. He immediately bought sweets.
 - B. He cried loudly for sweets.
 - C. He desired sweets but did not ask because he knew his parents would refuse.
 - D. He ignored the sweets. (C)

Explanation: The child was tempted by the sweets but hesitated to ask, understanding that his parents would not agree, considering it greedy.

3. What did the child see in the mustard field?
- A. A group of doves.
 - B. Blooming flowers and buzzing insects.
 - C. People working in the fields.
 - D. A toy shop. (B)

Explanation: The mustard field was described as golden, with dragonflies, bees, and butterflies adding to the vibrant atmosphere.

4. Why did the child not insist on buying the balloons at the fair?
- A. He did not like the colors.
 - B. He thought they were too expensive.
 - C. He knew his parents would consider him too old for them.
 - D. He was afraid of losing them. (C)

Explanation: The child refrained from asking for balloons because he anticipated his parents' disapproval, thinking they might call him immature.

5. When did the child realize that he had lost his parents?
- A. While watching the snake-charmer.
 - B. After asking to ride the roundabout.
 - C. At the entrance to the fair.
 - D. Near the sweetmeat stall. (B)

Explanation: The child turned around to seek his parents' permission for a ride and realized they were nowhere to be seen.

6. What was the child's immediate reaction upon losing his parents?
- A. He calmly looked for them.
 - B. He started crying and shouting for his parents.
 - C. He asked a stranger for help.
 - D. He tried to leave the fair. (B)

Explanation: The child's fear and panic were vividly described as he wailed and searched frantically for his parents.

7. Why did the child lose interest in the things he previously wanted after losing his parents?
- A. He became tired.
 - B. He was overwhelmed by the crowd.
 - C. His longing for his parents overshadowed everything else.
 - D. The things seemed unappealing to him. (C)

Explanation: The child's emotional distress made him disregard all the attractions of the fair, focusing only on finding his parents.

8. What did the kind man do when he found the lost child?
- A. He tried to bribe him with sweets, balloons, and rides.
 - B. He scolded the child for wandering off.
 - C. He immediately searched for the child's parents.
 - D. He left the child at a police station. (A)

Explanation: The man attempted to console the child by offering him various things from the fair, but the child refused them all, yearning only for his parents.

9. What does the story "The Lost Child" primarily highlight?
- A. The innocence and vulnerability of a child.
 - B. The child's love for toys.
 - C. The importance of parental discipline.
 - D. The dangers of crowded places. (A)

Explanation: The narrative focuses on the child's pure emotions, depicting his joy, desires, and eventual fear and distress.

10. What literary technique does Mulk Raj Anand use to describe the fair and surroundings?
- A. Metaphors and imagery.
 - B. Dialogue-heavy narration.
 - C. Flashbacks.
 - D. First-person narration. (A)

Explanation: Anand uses vivid imagery and metaphors to paint the festive atmosphere and the natural beauty of the mustard fields.