

CHAPTER-5 | Natural Vegetation And Wildlife

QUIZ
PART-07

1. Natural vegetation refers to:

- A. Cultivated crops
- B. Plant communities grown naturally
- C. Only trees
- D. Plants found only in national parks (B)

Explanation: Natural vegetation is the plant community that grows without human interference.

2. Tropical Evergreen Forests are characterized by:

- A. Trees shedding leaves in dry summer
- B. Green foliage throughout the year
- C. Found in regions with less than 70 cm rainfall
- D. Located in desert regions (B)

Explanation: Tropical Evergreen Forests remain green throughout the year.

3. Mangrove forests are commonly found in:

- A. The Western Ghats
- B. The Thar Desert
- C. The Sundarbans
- D. The Himalayan foothills (C)

Explanation: Mangrove forests are found mainly in coastal regions like the Sundarbans.

4. The animal commonly found in montane forests is:

- A. Camel
- B. Snow Leopard
- C. Wild Ass
- D. Flamingo (B)

Explanation: Montane forests are home to animals like the Snow Leopard.

5. The natural habitat of the Indian lion is found in:

- A. Jim Corbett National Park
- B. Kaziranga National Park
- C. Gir National Park
- D. Sundarbans National Park (C)

Explanation: Gir National Park is the natural habitat of the Indian lion.

6. Plants that are purely Indian and not introduced from outside are called:

- A. Endemic
- B. Exotic
- C. Wild
- D. Domestic (A)

Explanation: Plants native to India and not introduced from other regions are called endemic.

7. Thorn forests are found in areas with less than:

- A. 70 cm rainfall
- B. 100 cm rainfall
- C. 200 cm rainfall
- D. 50 cm rainfall (A)

Explanation: Thorn forests grow in regions receiving less than 70 cm rainfall.

8. The biosphere reserve famous for the Royal Bengal Tiger is:

- A. Kaziranga
- B. Sundarbans
- C. Nanda Devi
- D. Nilgiri (B)

Explanation: The Sundarbans Biosphere Reserve is known for the Royal Bengal Tiger.

9. The main occupation of nomadic tribes like Gujjars and Bakarwals in high-altitude regions is:

- A. Farming
- B. Grazing
- C. Fishing
- D. Trading (B)

Explanation: Nomadic tribes like the Gujjars and Bakarwals primarily engage in grazing livestock in high-altitude regions.

10. The tree known for its durable hardwood in mangrove forests is:

- A. Neem
- B. Sundari
- C. Bamboo
- D. Peepal (B)

Explanation: The Sundari tree is known for its durable hardwood found in mangrove forests.