

CHAPTER-1 | A Letter to God

QUIZ
PART-02

1. What was the single hope of the family living in the solitary house?
- A loan from the bank
 - Help from God
 - Rain the next day
 - A visit from relatives

(B)

Explanation: The text states the family in the solitary house had a single hope—help from God.

2. What thought comforted Lencho after the crop loss?
- He could sell his cattle
 - The government would compensate him
 - "No one dies of hunger."
 - He would move to the city

(C)

Explanation: Lencho recalls the saying "no one dies of hunger," which steadies him after the disaster.

3. When did Lencho write his letter asking for help?
- Late Friday night
 - Sunday at daybreak
 - Monday afternoon
 - Saturday evening

(B)

Explanation: He began writing the letter on the following Sunday at daybreak.

4. How much money did Lencho request in his letter?
- Fifty pesos
 - Seventy-five pesos
 - A hundred pesos
 - Two hundred pesos

(C)

Explanation: Lencho asked for a hundred pesos to sow his field again and live until the crop came.

5. What did Lencho write on the envelope before mailing his letter?
- "To the Postmaster"
 - "To God"
 - "To the Mayor"
 - "To Charity Office"

(B)

Explanation: He addressed the envelope simply "To God" and dropped it into the mailbox.

6. Who read Lencho's letter at the post office?
- Only the clerk
 - Only the postmaster
 - The postman and the postmaster
 - A group of townspeople

(C)

Explanation: The postman found the letter and showed it to the postmaster; both read it.

7. How is the postmaster first described?
- A thin, irritable man
 - A fat, amiable fellow
 - A strict, elderly official
 - A young, nervous clerk

(B)

Explanation: The narration calls him "a fat, amiable fellow," highlighting his friendly nature.

8. Why did the postmaster decide to answer Lencho's letter?
- To win a promotion
 - To teach Lencho a lesson
 - To avoid office gossip
 - To avoid shaking Lencho's faith in God

(D)

Explanation: Moved by Lencho's faith, he chose to reply so that the man's faith would remain unshaken.

9. How did the postmaster raise money to send to Lencho?
- He sold office equipment
 - He organized a town fair
 - He asked employees and friends and gave part of his salary
 - He applied for a government grant

(C)

Explanation: He collected contributions from employees and friends and added part of his own salary.

10. How much money was ultimately sent to Lencho, and how was the letter signed?
- The full hundred pesos, signed "Your Friend"
 - Less than half, signed "Postmaster"
 - A little more than half, signed "God"
 - Exactly half, unsigned

(C)

Explanation: He could gather only a little more than half of the requested amount and enclosed a note signed with a single word: God.