

1. Who invited the stork to his house for lunch?

- A. The stork
- B. The fox
- C. The crow
- D. The dog

Answer: B

Explanation: The fox invited the stork to his house for lunch.

2. In what utensil did the fox serve the food to the stork?

- A. A bowl
- B. A pot
- C. A plate
- D. A cup

Answer: C

Explanation: The fox served the food on a beautiful plate.

3. Why could the stork not eat the food at the fox's house?

- A. The food was not tasty
- B. The stork was not hungry
- C. The food was too hot
- D. The stork had a long beak and could not eat from the plate

Answer: D

Explanation: The stork could not eat because his long beak was not suitable for a plate.

4. How did the stork feel when he left the fox's house?

- A. Happy
- B. Angry
- C. Hungry and sad
- D. Excited

Answer: C

Explanation: The stork left the fox's house hungry and sad.

5. Who invited the fox for dinner a few days later?

- A. The stork
- B. The crow
- C. The fox's friend
- D. The farmer

Answer: A

Explanation: A few days later, the stork invited the fox for dinner.

6. In what utensil did the stork serve the food to the fox?

- A. A plate
- B. A bowl
- C. A cup
- D. A pot with a long and thin neck

Answer: D

Explanation: The stork served the food in a pot with a long and thin neck.

7. Why could the fox not eat the food at the stork's house?

- A. He was not feeling well
- B. The food was tasteless
- C. The pot had a long and thin neck
- D. The food was cold

Answer: C

Explanation: The fox could not eat because the pot had a long and thin neck.

8. What request did the fox make to the stork while eating?

- A. To give more food
- B. To serve the food in a plate
- C. To stop eating
- D. To cook again

Answer: B

Explanation: The fox asked the stork to give him a plate.

9. How did the stork respond to the fox's request?

- A. He gave a plate
- B. He got angry
- C. He did not respond and kept eating
- D. He asked the fox to leave

Answer: C

Explanation: The stork did not respond and continued eating his food.

10. What lesson did the fox learn at the end of the story?

- A. Food should be tasty
- B. Guests should eat fast
- C. Others treat you the way you treat them
- D. Plates are better than pots

Answer: C

Explanation: The fox realized that people treat others the same way they are treated.

