

CHAPTER-5 | The Happy Prince

QUIZ
PART-05

1. Why did the courtiers call the Prince 'the Happy Prince'?
- Because he always smiled
 - Because he never knew sorrow while alive
 - Because he helped poor people
 - Because he was wise and kind (B)

Explanation: The Prince never experienced sorrow or suffering when alive, so the courtiers called him 'the Happy Prince'.

2. Why was the Happy Prince no longer truly happy after becoming a statue?
- He was lonely
 - He felt the misery of poor people
 - He lost his wealth
 - He had no friends (B)

Explanation: As a statue, his heart could feel the pain and suffering of the poor and needy.

3. Why did the Happy Prince send a ruby to the seamstress?
- She wanted jewelry
 - She was sick herself
 - She was poor and her son was ill
 - She lost her job (C)

Explanation: The seamstress was poor and her little son was sick and thirsty; the ruby was sent to help them.

4. What did the swallow do in the seamstress's house?
- Brought food for her
 - Fanned the sick boy's forehead with his wings
 - Sang for the little boy
 - Guarded the house (B)

Explanation: The swallow laid the ruby on the table and fanned the boy's forehead with his wings.

5. Who received the first sapphire from the Happy Prince?
- The Mayor
 - A matchgirl
 - A playwright
 - A beggar (C)

Explanation: The first sapphire was given to a poor playwright who needed food and firewood to finish his play.

6. Why did the Prince give his second sapphire to the matchgirl?
- She was hungry
 - She had lost her matches in the gutter
 - She was cold and lonely
 - She admired the Prince (B)

Explanation: The matchgirl had lost her matches in the gutter and feared her father's anger, so the Prince helped her.

7. What did the swallow see while flying over the city?
- Only rich people enjoying life
 - Only beggars near the gates
 - Rich people celebrating and beggars sitting at gates
 - Only wandering children (C)

Explanation: The swallow saw rich people making merry in their houses, beggars at gates, and wandering poor children.

8. Why did the swallow finally decide not to go to Egypt?
- He was too weak to fly
 - He loved the city
 - He did not want to leave the Prince blind and helpless
 - He wanted to collect more rubies (C)

Explanation: The Happy Prince had become blind, so the swallow stayed back to serve him out of love and loyalty.

9. What were the two precious things mentioned in the story?
- The ruby and sapphire
 - The golden leaves and ruby
 - The dead swallow and the leaden heart
 - The sapphire eyes and the statue (C)

Explanation: The leaden heart of the Happy Prince and the dead swallow were considered the two most precious things.

10. Why were the leaden heart and the dead swallow called precious?
- They were rare and beautiful
 - They represented sacrifice and service to others
 - They were admired by the Mayor
 - They could not be melted in fire (B)

Explanation: They were precious because they symbolized selfless deeds and sacrifices for the welfare of others.