

Chapter – 2 | Constitutional Design

QUIZ PART-02

1. Why do countries need a constitution?

- A. To organise cultural festivals
- B. To create uniform food habits
- C. To establish basic rules for governing diverse populations (C)
- D. To make everyone speak the same language

Explanation: Constitutions set basic rules needed to govern countries with diverse populations and interests.

2. How does a constitution help people live together?

- A. By forcing everyone to follow the same religion
- B. By generating trust and coordination among people
- C. By dividing people into separate groups
- D. By giving power only to the military (B)

Explanation: Constitutions generate trust and coordination necessary for different kinds of people to live together.

3. What does a constitution specify about the government?

- A. Number of festivals to celebrate
- B. How the government will be constituted and who takes which decisions
- C. How to conduct sports events
- D. Which movies can be released (B)

Explanation: A constitution specifies how the government is formed and who holds decision-making powers.

4. What limit does a constitution impose?

- A. On people's food choices
- B. On citizens' rights
- C. On the powers of the government
- D. On the number of schools in a country (C)

Explanation: Constitutions lay down limits on government powers to protect citizens' rights.

5. What does a constitution tell us about citizens?

- A. Their hobbies
- B. Their rights
- C. Their family backgrounds
- D. Their favourite leaders (B)

Explanation: A constitution clearly states the rights of citizens in a country.

6. What aspiration does a constitution express?

- A. People's dreams of wealth
- B. People's favourite food
- C. People's aim of creating a good society
- D. People's voting preferences (C)

Explanation: Constitutions express people's aspirations about building a just and good society.

7. Which of these is NOT a purpose of the constitution?

- A. Specifies decision-making powers
- B. Establishes trust among people
- C. Lays down government limits
- D. Controls what citizens think (D)

Explanation: Constitutions do not control thoughts; they set rules, limits, and ensure coordination.

8. Which statement is true regarding the need for a constitution?

- A. It imposes unlimited powers on government
- B. It expresses only the rulers' wishes
- C. It provides basic structure and rights in society
- D. It is optional for countries (C)

Explanation: A constitution provides the basic structure for governance and ensures citizens' rights.

9. What is essential for different kinds of people to live together peacefully?

- A. Same traditions
- B. Same clothing style
- C. Trust and coordination generated by constitution
- D. Same food habits (C)

Explanation: The constitution generates trust and coordination, enabling peaceful coexistence.

10. Which of these statements about the constitution is correct?

- A. It specifies decision-making power only
- B. It only allows coordination
- C. It imposes limits on government power only
- D. It allows coordination, specifies power, and imposes limits (D)

Explanation: The constitution allows coordination in society, specifies decision-making power, and imposes limits on the government.