

Chapter – 4 | Madam Rides The Bus

QUIZ-01

1. What was Valli's favorite pastime?

- A. Playing games with friends
- B. Watching the street outside from her doorway
- C. Reading books at home
- D. Visiting her relatives (B)

Explanation: Valli loved watching the street outside as it gave her new experiences, despite not having playmates of her age.

2. Why was the bus a source of joy for Valli?

- A. She liked its color
- B. It was always full of cheerful passengers
- C. It brought her dreams of traveling to the town
- D. Her friends often rode the bus (C)

Explanation: Valli was fascinated by the bus and longed to travel on it, dreaming of seeing the town.

3. How much did the bus fare to the town cost one way?

- A. 25 paise
- B. 50 paise
- C. 30 paise
- D. 1 rupee (C)

Explanation: Valli discovered from her observations and discreet questions that the one-way fare was 30 paise, which seemed like a fortune to her.

4. How did Valli save money for her bus trip?

- A. Borrowing from friends
- B. Stopping herself from buying treats like peppermints and toys
- C. Doing household chores for payment
- D. Receiving money from her relatives (B)

Explanation: Valli saved money by avoiding indulgences like peppermints, balloons, and the merry-go-round at the fair, showing her determination.

5. Why did Valli refuse the conductor's offer of a cold drink?

- A. She didn't trust him
- B. She didn't like cold drinks
- C. She didn't want to owe anyone
- D. She had no money to spare (D)

Explanation: Valli firmly declined the offer as she had just enough money for her bus fare and didn't want to spend on anything else.

6. What was Valli's reaction upon seeing the cow on the road?

- A. She was frightened
- B. She clapped with glee and laughed endlessly
- C. She ignored it
- D. She felt angry at the driver (B)

Explanation: Valli found the cow's behavior of running in front of the bus amusing and laughed heartily until there were tears in her eyes.

7. What dampened Valli's excitement during the return journey?

- A. The conductor's jokes
- B. Seeing the dead cow on the roadside
- C. Losing her seat
- D. Getting scolded by an elderly passenger (B)

Explanation: The sight of the dead cow, which had been so lively earlier, deeply saddened Valli, highlighting her sensitive nature.

8. How did Valli plan to sneak out for the bus ride?

- A. By pretending to visit a friend
- B. By using the hours when her mother napped
- C. By asking her mother for permission
- D. By hiding in the bus (B)

Explanation: Valli cleverly utilized her mother's afternoon nap hours to make her first independent journey without being noticed.

9. Why did the conductor humorously refer to Valli as "madam"?

- A. Because she dressed like a grown-up
- B. To tease her for her serious and independent demeanor
- C. She asked for respect
- D. She insisted on being treated as an adult (B)

Explanation: The conductor playfully called Valli "madam" to acknowledge her maturity and independence despite her young age.

10. How did Valli react when her mother talked about not knowing everything in the world?

- A. She ignored it
- B. She agreed, reflecting on her experience
- C. She argued with her mother
- D. She confessed her journey (B)

Explanation: Valli agreed with her mother, drawing parallels to her own realization about life and death during her trip.